DETAILS OF THE KILLING OF CASTILLO

The Assassin Golli Was An Italian Anarchist Who Had Been Imprisoned.

GLAD HE DID HIS DUTY.

All Christendom Is Shocked at the Cold-Blooded Crime.

PART OF A CONSPIRACY.

Shot the Spanish Premier by the Side of His Wife.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

MADRID, Aug. 9.—The assassination of the Prime Minister of Spain, Senor Canovas del Castillo, who was shot and killed by an Italian anarchist, whose name is believed to be Michael Eugene Golli, at the baths of Santa Agueda yesterday afternoon was undoubtedly cold-blooded diy premeditated.

Golli deliberately waited for an opportunity to kill the Spanish statesman and he only fired when he had no chance of missing. In fact the assassin, who was arrested almost immediately after the Premier fell dead at the feet of his wife, has declared as much to the examining magistrate.

The Prime Minister uttered for some time an agony and passed away with a cry of "long live Spain." Further details of the assassination show that Senor Canovas del Castillo and his wife were present yesterday morning at the celebration of mass in the chapel attached to the baths. After mass the Premier was reading and conversing with some reporters when the assassin approached and fired three shots at him with a revolver, hitting him in the forehead, chest and left ear. The wounded man fell to the ground crying "Assassin! long live Spain."

The Premier was carried to his room and expired at 1:30 P. M., after extreme unction had been administered him by a priest of the Dominican order.

The murderer, who was immediately seized by persons in the vicinity, was so severely handled that he must have been killed had it not been for the prompt action of the civil guards. The prisoner, who declared he had killed the Premier in the accomplishment of a just vengeance," gave the name of Ginalli and claimed that the deed was the outcome of an extensive anarchist conspiracy. Later, however, the assassin confessed that his real name was Michael Angelino Golli, that he was 26 years of age, a native of Boggi near Naples, and that he left Italy and came to Spain in 1896. After reaching Spain, Golli, according to his confession, resided at Barcelona and participated in the doings of the various anarchist societies of that place and vicinity.

After sojourning at Barcelona for some time, Golli visited France and Belgium and returned to Spain in July last. After his return, the anarchists seemed to have completed the plans for the assassination of the Prime Minister. He left Madrid for Santa Agueda at the same time as Senor Canovas del Castillo and awaited an opportunity to assassinate the statesman.

In appearance Golli is of medium height, wears a full beard and spectacles, and his demeanor is that of a quiet, law-abiding citizen. He says he is satisfied with having "done his duty," and asserts that he had no personal grudge against the Premier and was merely obeying orders received from his superiors in the secret society to which he belongs. He frankly professes anarchist doctrine, says he was sentenced in 1895 to eighteen months imprisonment in the jail at Lucca, Italy, and claims that he escaped from the city to Marseilles from which port he made his way to Barcelona.

Senora Canovas, wife of the Premier, who was but a short distance from her husband when the crime was committed, rushed to his side upon hearing the shots. As the Premier lay dying on the ground, she bitterly reproached the murderer for his crime. Golli, in reply to the agonizing words of the distracted wife, said: "I respect you, because you are an honorable lady, but I have done my duty and I am now easy in mind, for I have avenged my friends and the victims of Montjuich."

Montjuich is the fortress of Barcelona, a castle of which the anarchists who have been sentenced to death for recent outrages have been executed by being shot in the back. The anarchists recently executed outside Montjuich were the last batch of the friends who were guilty of throwing a bomb on June 7, 1896, into a religious procession about to enter the church of Santa Maria de Larmar, upon the occasion of the Corpus Christi celebration. Twelve persons were instantly killed and about fifty others, several of whom since died of their wounds, were wounded.

For this crime twenty-six anarchists were sentenced to death and many of them were executed. The condemned men invariably shouted "long live anarchy" just before the orders to fire were given.

The Spanish newspapers express great indignation at Golli's crime. Even the journals that have republican leanings praise the service of the deceased statesman. The Imparcial says:

"Yesterday will prove a black day for Spain. The crime will entitle the indignation of society against this would-be destroyer."

A number of newspapers appear this morning bordered in black.

A post mortem examination of the remains of the Premier was made this morning prior to embalming them for transportation to this city. The funeral will be most impressive.

The indignation expressed at the crime is shared by all parties in politics and it is generally believed that the members of the Colonial secret societies were concerned in the outrage.

It is reported that Senor Pidal, president of the Chamber of Deputies, will be appointed president of the Council of Ministers in succession to the late Premier at the expiration of the official nine days' mourning. The Ministers for the present will meet in council daily.

Golli developed in the examination before the magistrate today that he succeeded in firing two shots at the people who arrested him before he was overpowered.

The assassin calls himself a "revolutionary anarchist."

Senor Silvela, the leader of the Dissident Conservatives, has followed the example of Senor Sagasta, the Liberal leader, and Marshal Martinez de Campos, in tendering their condolences to the government while placing their services at the disposal of the Ministers.

The Cabinet sat until 2 o'clock this morning and decided to publish in the official Gazette today, which will appear with a black border, the appointment of Lieutenant-General Don Marcelo de Azcarraga, the Minister for War, as Premier in the interim.

Senor Sagasta has postponed his projected visit to this city.

In anticipation of possible disturbances at Barcelona, the police force of that city has been reinforced.

Later in the day it was announced that highest military honors will be accorded to the deceased at his funeral. The court will, however, not return here from San Sebastian, the summer residence to attend the funeral ceremonies. The Queen Regent will be represented at the funeral by the Duke of Soto.

The remains will be brought here on Tuesday. An individual who was heard to express sympathy with the assassin of the Premier and with his crime has been arrested.

The newspapers of this city in commenting on the crime say that the anarchists have no country, and it is dreadful to contemplate that the last two murders of eminent men, that of President Carnot of France and of Premier Canovas del Castillo, were the work of Italians.

CUBANS HAD NO HAND IN THE DEED.

But the Revolution Will Be Benefitted by the Crime.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—A special to the World from Turners, N. Y., says:

Estrada Palma, who is at the head of the Cuban junta in this country, in an interview commented upon the assassination of Canovas as follows:

"While I have no sympathy with the assassin, I cannot help but feel that the action was one of retribution. Canovas more than Weyler has been responsible for the cruelties practiced by the Spanish troops in Cuba. It was by his ordermurdered and wronged. He deserved no better fate.

"His death will be to Cuba's benefit, for it complicates political affairs in Spain. As the leader of the majority, he was sponsor for Weyler. His great rival is Silvela, the leader of the conservative minority. Should the Queen regent choose to continue the conservatives in power, Silvela will be premier and that would mean that Weyler would be succeeded by General Polavieja, who is now in the Phillipine Islands, and belongs to the Weyler school of warfare.

"It is true that Silvela recently suggeste dthat Cuba be given autonomy, but he cannot maintain that position as a conservative leader. The liberals under Sagasta would indeed grant us autonomy, but we will accept nothing less than absolute independence. For that we have sacrificed everything. In any case, the war must continue, and as long as it continues under Spanish methods, the sympathy of the world will be with us. In the meantime, the political confusion in Spain cannot but give us an advantage.

"It should be distinctly understood that the assassination of Canovas is not the work of the Cuban party. We do not resort to such methods. The anarchists of Spain are for the most part in the northern part of the country, and they are intimately connected with the anarchists of France. They had long threatened Canovas, who caused many of them to be executed. Only a few days ago, several anarchists were executed in Barcelona and I suppose the assassination was the outcome. I do not think the killing of Canovas was due at all to any question of policy, but merely as a vague outbreak on the part of some member of a dangerous body of men. We Cubans have no sympathy with such an act.

"As a man, I deplore such misfortune, but as a Cuban I cannot help but feel that I am benefitted by it."

NO MONEY FOR MINERS

There Who Quit Work Are Not Included in the Pay-Roll.

STRIKERS ARE NOW HUNGRY.

A Man Who Worked Is Badly Beaten and His Wheel Smashed.

A PROFANE AGITATOR OUSTED

He Spoke in Four Languages but Was Driven From the Camp.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 9.—All the miners of the New York and Cleveland Gas Coal Company who are still at work were paid today, but those who struck did not receive any money, the company insisting upon the terms of the contract by which the men agree to forfeit all the reserve in case they quit work.

All miners who can give a reasonable excuse for attending any of the meetings will be paid. The company has the names of all the men who have been at these meetings and took part in any of the demonstrations. Unless they can give a satisfactory explanation they will get no money. The strikers say the men have promised to quit work as soon as they get their pay, but Superintendent Samuel Dearmit says the strikers will not take a man out of the Plum Creek mine except twenty-nine who will be discharged.

Owing to the carelessness of the guard about the Sandy Creek mine, forty men went into the mine at o'clock this morning and are now at work. Last week there were but three men at work and only three cars of coal were mined.

Some of the details for the march on the mines in the Westmoreland county and Central Pennsylvania have been arranged. It will probably be made Tuesday, but no later than Wednesday. It is expected to take a small army of men from the Pittsburg district and march to the mines that are in operation. Several brass bands have been engaged, and it is hoped to make a successful campaign.

Word was received last night that many of the men at work were anxious for the appearance of the marchers, as it will give them a substantial excuse for quitting work. Captain Miller said that as far as the New York and Cleveland miners are concerned the situation was very gratifying. He intimated that the mines would not be neglected on account of the campaign started in Westmoreland county. He said there would be enough men left at the three mines to guard them and to see to it that they are kept idle.

N. O. Wacki, the Connellsville agitator, who addressed the meeting last night in four languages, was expelled from the camp and ordered to stay away for using profane language in his speech.

William Brisell, a lazy man at Plum Creek, was riding his bicycle last night when he was assaulted by four of the strikers and badly injured. His wheel was broken and he will be laid up for several weeks.

The strike is beginning to cause hunger among the miners' families along the Wheeling division and in the Panhandle district. At the mines where company stores have been in operation the destitution is more marked. In most instances the stores were closed up shortly after the strike began, and the miners have no places now where their credit is good. The male members of the families are living better in the camps than the women and children who are at home.

The application for an injunction to restrain the miners from congregating near the mines of the New York and Cleveland Gas Coal Company, which was to have been filed in the United States Court today on behalf of the non-resident stockholders of the company, had not been presented to the court up to the adjournment at noon.

Judge Acheson has gone to his home in Washington county, and it is not likely that the bill will now be filed before tomorrow.

RUN DOWN BY A CARRIAGE.

Old Man Given Seriously Injured on Broadway This Morning.

While crossing Broadway this morning on Twelfth street, Mr. Given of Thirteenth and Alice streets was run down by a carriage.

Mr. Given, who is 80 years old, did not see the carriage on account of an electric car that was standing at the crossing, and the coachman of the carriage did not see the old man until Mr. Given had been struck.

The carriage belongs to Mrs. M. W. Kates.

The injured man was removed to the home of Dr. E. H. Woolsey, where it was found upon examination that Mr. Given had sustained a fracture of the neck of the thigh bone, besides a number of bruises.

Owing to the patient's age, his injuries will probably go hard with him. He was resting comfortably this afternoon.

IN NEED OF HELP.

PRINTING COMMITTEE REPORTS

Supervisors Transact Routine Business and Pass Bills.

The Board of Supervisors met this morning and opened proceedings as usual with the relief of a few indigents.

W. S. Santos of Centerville and Antonio Lee of Alvarado applied for permits to obtain liquor licenses, and their bonds were approved.

Expert Davis reported that the Supreme Court had declared the Clark road law to be unconstitutional, and asked that the Board take steps to pay some bills that had been assigned to him. The necessary resolution was passed and the bills will be paid under the old law.

T. C. Nielsen of Fruitvale, Wm. Grassellin of Decoto, Leon Faure of Fruitvale and Charles D. Kernison of Sunol were granted permits to sell liquors.

The chairman of the Building Committee was instructed to send a blue print of the annex to the Receiving Hospital to the secretary of the State Commission of Lunacy.

Chairman Rooth of the Printing Committee was granted another week to present a report on schedule printing.

Mr. Church said at the present time the majority of inmates at the County Infirmary are decrepit old women and additional help is necessary. The matron is in need of help and it was suggested that the Superintendent be granted permission to spend $10 per month for additional help as he sees fit.

Mr. Mitchell said that he thought an assistant would be better than a little help.

Mr. Rooth thought that the necessary help could not be obtained for $16 a month and moved that the matter be referred to the Hospital Committee with power to act, and this course was adopted.

Mrs. Wright, a widow, 71 years old, came before the Board and asked for assistance, and her case was referred to Mr. Church.

Mr. Wells reported that a bridge at Sunol is in need of repair and needs fixing at once. As it was shown that the work will cost less than $300, Mr. Church moved that Mr. Wells be instructed to go ahead with the work, and the motion prevailed.

The Board then took a short recess till the Finance Committee could prepare some bills for passage.

The Printing Committee presented the following report:

"Your Committee on Printing beg leave to report that they have considered the matter of allowing additional compensation to the Tribune Publishing Company for printing the delinquent tax list.

"That the same has been published five times, as provided by law.

"That the provisions of law require that each delinquent taxpayer must pay into the County Treasury for publishing the delinquent tax list the sum of 50 cents per name and description.

"That the sum allowed for publishing each name and description by this Board on the 1st day of June, 1897, was the sum of 22½ cents.

"That this amount was voted under a misapprehension of the facts in that it was presumed by certain members of this Board that it was for but one publication.

"That the amount heretofore allowed by this Board is very low compared with the prices paid in adjoining counties.

"That in the judgment of your committee an allowance of 3½ cents additional for each of the last three publications of name and description, or a total of 32½ cents per name and description for the four publications would not be unreasonable, but would be a fair compensation for such work, and your committee recommend such additional allowance.

"CHARLES ROETH,
"JOHN MITCHELL."

After the reading of the report the following resolution was adopted:

"Whereas, The provisions of law make it necessary to have the delinquent tax list of this county published four times, and

"Whereas, The same has been published in the Oakland Tribune four times, as required by law; and

"Whereas, This Board, on the 1st day of June, 1897, fixed the compensation for such entire publication at the sum of 22½ cents per name and description;

"Whereas, At the same time prices were fixed, certain members of this Board voted under a misapprehension of the facts in that they believed that the allowance was for one publication, and not for four; and

"Whereas, The prices fixed in adjoining counties are much in excess of the prices fixed by this Board; and

"Whereas, It is deemed by this Board not unreasonable, but just and fair, to allow an increased rate for such publication;

"Now therefore be it Resolved, That an additional allowance of 10 cents per name and description (or 3½ cents per name and description for each of the last three publications in addition to the amount already allowed) be allowed for the publication of such delinquent tax list, thus making the entire allowance for such publications 32½ cents per name and description."

City Equalizers To-night.

The City Board of Equalization will meet again to-night and it is likely that the application for reduction of a number of street railway assessments will be considered.

Auditor Snow has the City's books ready to deliver to the Board, and it is thought that action can be taken on the applications this sevening.

FITZ IS THINKING.

The Great Pugs May Yet Meet Again in the Fistic Arena.

A CARNIVAL IN NEVADA.

Sharkey and Maher to Fight for Ten Thousand Dollars.

EVERYTHING TO A FINISH.

Carson and Reno Both Bidding for W. A. Brady's Big Attraction.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

RENO, Nev., Aug. 9.—Alf Ellinghouse came up from the West this morning in the interest of W. A. Brady of New York, to arrange for a pugilistic carnival to take place during fair week. Mr. Ellinghouse went with Sheriff McInnis this afternoon to look at the old prison walls with a view of utilizing them as an arena in which to hold the carnival. He found them adapted to the purpose, and a seating capacity can easily be arranged for 20,000 people. He says that if he succeeds in making satisfactory arrangements Mr. Brady will pull off a finish fight between Maher and Sharkey, for which Mr. Brady has offered a purse of $10,000; and also one between Creedon and Kid McCoy. He will also match Tommy Ryan against the winner of the Green-Walcott fight that takes place in San Francisco August 27th. Al Gumhill of England and George Dixon are among the possible attractions.

Dan Sullivan and Jimmy Barry are also on Mr. Brady's card for the week of sport. Kid Lavigne and some good cracks look in his eyes will undoubtedly be among the attractions.

Last, but by no means least, another fight between Robert Fitzsimmons and J. J. Corbett is among the possibilities. At all events Mr. Brady, who hopes to get up another go between the world's champion and ex-champion, to settle the dispute as to whether Fitz struck a foul blow on that memorable 17th of March or not.

Mr. Brady has already offered big inducements to Fitzsimmons and Jim to come together again. They are considering Mr. Brady's proposition. Corbett is understood to be only too anxious to try the red headed champion again, and Fitz is "thinking."

Every fight will be to a finish, and Mr. Ellinghouse says it will be the most attractive week's pugilistic carnival ever put on in this or any other State. He will make Reno bid against Carson, and says the successful one will have to make arrangements for entertaining at least 25,000 people for a week.

Reno is very much excited over the proposition, and Mr. Ellinghouse will probably know more in a day or two than he does today.

Mr. Ellinghouse goes to Carson in the morning to pay his respects to Governor Sadler.

As near as we could understand from talking with Mr. Ellinghouse, Carson is very much elated at the prospect of a week's fistic sport taking place in that city, but it is by no means certain that Carson will be selected. Mr. Ellinghouse had a talk with General Downing in San Francisco, and the two are working together with the view of pulling off the fight in Reno during the State Fair.

SHE IS A MURDERESS

Charles Ladue Dies From Shots Fired by Clara Fallmer.

NO ANTE-MORTEM STATEMENT.

Believed He Would Recover and Refused to Tell His Story.

THE GIRL NOW GETTING WELL.

Belief That She Will Attempt to Again End Her Life.

Charles Ladue, the victim of Clara Fallmer's shooting died this morning at his home in Alameda. The girl will now be held to answer to the charge of murder.

The shooting occurred a week ago tonight. Ladue who was the girl's lover, threatened to discard her. During the ensuing quarrel, the girl drew a pistol and aimed at Ladue's heart, fired. As he fell to the sidewalk another shot rang out and the girl, wounded by her own hand sank beside the prostrate form of her lover.

The bullet that killed Ladue entered his breast near the heart. For a week he has suffered untold agonies, until partial paralysis deadened his suffering.

Ladue's death was a frightful one and during his last hours, he suffered excruciatingly. Doctors Keyes and Lubeck performed an operation late yesterday afternoon and locate the bullet. It was pressing against the spinal paralysis.

After the operation, an officer called on Ladue and asked what he had to say concerning the shooting. Ladue was suffering frightfully and could with difficulty speak.

"I told Clara that I wanted to have nothing more to do with her," he gasped and then she shot me."

This is the only statement that Ladue has made even semi-officially. His mother may know more of the particulars but she has refused again and again to say anything in regard to the matter.

Ladue did not give up hope of final recovery until near the end. He said again and again that he thought he was recovering and absolutely refused to make a statement of the shooting.

Deputy District Attorney Ed Church went to Alameda twice to get a dying statement from Ladue. Both times he refused. I admit once by the boy's mother so Ladue died with his side of the trouble leading up to the shooting untold.

Ladue lingered until 5:30 A. M. this morning when he died. He had grown very weak the evening before but his wonderful vitality pulled him through the long hours of the night.

Clara Fallmer has given her version of the story which was published exclusively in The Tribune. She stated that her act was the result of momentary insanity brought on by intense anger at his avowal that he would desert her.

The girl declared that Ladue had listened to idle gossip which said that she had circulated stories concerning Mrs. Ladue. The boy naturally resented the imputation of any faults in his mother and the lovers had a bitter quarrel which ended fatally for one.

Clara Fallmer is recovering and will soon be able to be out. She is still ignorant of her lover's death and believes that he too, is recovering.

The sheriff has decided to delay the issuance of a warrant for the girl's arrest until after the inquest over Ladue's remains. The inquest will be held this evening.

In the meantime Steward Tobin of the Receiving Hospital has been instructed to keep a close watch on the girl and to permit no one to see her. Every effort will be made to guard against her escape or any attempt by her to commit suicide which the Stewards feels she will try to do when she hears of Ladue's death.

BORE FALSE WITNESS

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Aug. 7.—Professor Henry W. Elliott read today the interview in New York with John W. Foster, the Commissioner sent by President McKinley to England to confer with Lord Salisbury relative to the Behring Sea matter and replied hotly to Foster's intimation regarding the animus which actuated Elliott to write his two recent letters.

He said "So, John W. Foster has nothing to say in answer to my direct charge of his telling the President an untruth about myself. Well, perhaps, that is the best thing for him to do. I happen to have in my possession the black and white evidence that he has violated the Ninth Commandment. He has 'borne false witness against his neighbor.' Then when I call attention to this fact, he talks vaguely about my 'animus' and my 'status.'

"The American people have had a glut of this absurd tom-foolery over the fur seals and the prospect of having it strung out two or three years longer under the said of this incompetent man, is enough to sicken them. I predict that they will not stand the shame and imposition.

"I have always been under the impression, and am still convinced, that a man convicted of bearing false witness against his neighbor is not a fit man for a position with in the private or official life of American citizens.

"There is more under this than I can or desire to mention at the present moment. This same amiable Mr. Hamlin, who is now associated with Foster, said to me in 1891 that they (the Foster Association) told me you had sold some report to the British but, my dear Mr. Elliott, you know that we have never believed it.' I intend to get the proof of this action on the part of Foster and his associates and then I shall add another indictment disqualifying him from tainting the State Department so as to discredit and injure American interests and defame American citizens."

GERMANY TO SHINE AT THE PARIS SHOW.

An Effort to Conciliate the People Who Live Beyond the Rhine.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: For the purpose of displaying her wares to the world and of benefiting her commerce thereby, the German Government has already in course of preparation an exhibit which will be made at the Paris Exposition in 1900 and which is expected to surpass anything of the kind ever attempted by any nation. So reports Consul Frank Mason, stationed at Frankfort, Germany, in his annual report of the trade relations of the German Empire, which reached the State Department today.

"Notwithstanding all historical differences and resentments," he says, "the economic interests of the two countries are after all very closely allied, and it seems to be the imperial policy to conciliate France by all legitimate means. Germany holds the second place in the list of countries in respect to direct trade with France."

FIGURES REGARDING THE APPLE CROP.

California's Yield Will Be of the Usual Maximum Order.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 7.—The National Apple Shippers' Association furnishes a monthly crop report today. The yield for the crop year of 1897, based on an average of 100 as a full crop made up to August 1st, is as follows: Canada, 30 per cent; New England States, 20; New York State, 27; Pennsylvania, 50; Maryland, 60; Virginia, 70; West Virginia, 30; Kentucky, 60; Ohio, 30; Indiana, 6; Michigan, 9; Illinois, 7; Iowa, 55; Missouri, 80; Kansas, 75; Arkansas, 90; Tennessee, 70; Colorado, 100; California, 100; Oregon, 100.

The above figures show a considerable falling off in the East, while in the West, particularly Illinois, Iowa, Missouri and Kansas show a decided increase, both as to per cent of crop and a greatly increased acreage in bearing. The 1897 crop will be considerably below that of last year, but will come to the average crop for the United States.

COLUMBUS, Aug. 7.—A special to the Dispatch from Painesville, Ohio, says:

Trouble is anticipated at Fairport on Monday. The Fins oppose the putting to work of an extra force of Hungarians in unloading vessels.

Company G., Fifth Regiment, has been ordered out and will protect the new men when they go to work Monday morning.

The soldiers have gone to Fairport and an effort will be made to unload a vessel this afternoon, the Fins threaten vengeance.'

WHEAT MARKET IS SEE-SAWING

Eastern Advices Bring a Bearish Feeling Across the Bay.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 7.—The wheat market is playing a game of see-saw today's Eastern advices show a bearish feeling and local speculative values are also lower, spot remains unchanged though not as firm as it was. Not much call for barley today, feed continues scarce and reports from the interior show that the crop of feed will be quite short, brewing is more plentiful though firmly held at the quotations.

Beyond an advance for oil cake meal, there are no changes in feed and mill stuffs today. Hay receipts are heavier.

Sweet potatoes are more plentiful and are lower. String beans are higher and quite scarce. Tomatoes both river and bay, are weaker. Potatoes are easier; receipts are more liberal and the demand has fallen off somewhat.

Apples move very slowly, choice stock is weaker. Strawberries did a trifle better. Grapes, particularly black, are in larger supply and are lower. Pears are a trifle easier today. Isabella grapes are worth $1.25 per crate.

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—In the wheat market this morning there was an opening break of about a cent a bushel on the weakness at Liverpool, followed by a full recovery on the announcement that Paris markets were decidedly higher. This, in turn, was succeeded by a sharp break, prices sinking to the lowest figures of the day the decline being accelerated by some liquidation and a general cleaning up of accounts for Sunday.

The exports during the week have been enormous, the figures showing about 1,000,000 bushels increase over the previous week. In the interior receipts at the same time have shown a moderate increase. There was a less active export demand today, shippers taking about 200,000 bushels in all. The range of September was 83¾ to 84, closing at 83⅛. On the curb the market was weaker, selling off to 82⅝ with a slight rally toward 1 o'clock to 83 1-16.

THE STOCK MARKET TAKES A BIG JUMP.

A Sensational Rumor of a Sale Causes a Flurry.

The Market Closes With a Very Buoyant Feeling in Some Shares.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—Money on call, easy at 1 and 1½ per cent. Prime mercantile paper, 3½ and 4; sterling exchange weak with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.86¼ and ½ for demand and $4.84¾ and $4.85 for sixty days, posted rates, $4.85½ and $4.87 and $4.88, commercial bills, $4.84½. Silver certificates quotation lower; bar silver, 56¾. Mexican dollars 43½.

The price of Manhattan showed a sensational jump at the opening of the stock market with running sales of 1,600 shares at $1.02½ to $1.05 and subsequently rising to $1.0 as against 99½ at last night's close. Various stories of a corner in the stock and of an offer from surface railroad interests to purchase the property were the cause. The stock quickly reacted to $1.05. The market showed advances all around, London having changed front and advanced its prices for Americans.

Illinois Central moved up three points to $1.10, and the other active railroad shares made advances.

The more active shares felt the effects of the rapid advance and receded sharp fractions on liberal realizing sales by the traders. Business was in large volume with a steadier tone apparent in the railway list at the expiration of the first hour.

The trading in the first hour was animated. The anthracite group displayed a strong tendency in the wheat market. The closing was very buoyant at the top prices for the day and the week. Total sales, 5?,200 shares.

ORE SHOVELERS ARE ON A STRIKE.

They Want More Gang Bosses and Less Boss Stealings.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

FAIRPORT, Aug. 7.—The iron-ore shovelers are on a strike. The laborers demand one gang boss to each gang, the gang boss to handle the line, to dump the buckets, and to draw one man's pay. They demand to be paid from the office by envelope instead of the boss dividing the money, taking a certain share from each man's pay and running from two to seven gangs and doing no work.

The men say they do not care to support bosses this way. If the company wants them, let them pay them. The men refuse to work and the militia has been called out. The troops have just arrived from Painesville.

Important for Liquor Dealers.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Aug. 7.—Judge Simonton of the United States Court filed his decision today defining an original package and thereby settling a disputed feature of the dispensary law.

The court holds that the original package is the form in which the liquor is delivered to the initial carrier at the point of shipment. If a box of liquor is imported, the whole box must be sold and not a single bottle from the box.

The decision will require all dealers to import liquor in single packages.

A HUMAN BODY CONSUMED BY POTASH

Theory in a Murder Case Supported by Actual Facts.

The Proof Will Be Used Against a Wealthy Wife Murderer.

CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—The experiment of destroying a human body by the use of crude potash was successfully carried out today. The body was destroyed with the exception of a few small splinters of bone, in two hours. Of the fleshy substance, only a small quantity of fluid, about the consistency of molasses, remained.

The experiment was made under orders of the prosecution in the case of Adolph Luetgert, the rich sausage manufacturer, who is charged with murdering his wife and disposing of her body in the vats at his factory. The theory of the prosecution was that Luetgert placed the body of his wife in a solution of crude potash and cold water, raised the solution to a boiling heat and destroyed all traces of his alleged crime.

A few small bones were said to have been found in a vat in the factory. The State has wound a complete web of circumstantial evidence about the sausage-maker, but the fact that a body could be destroyed thus has been disputed. Today's test settles that point beyond a doubt. The attorneys for the State believe the last link in the chain of circumstances has been found to convict Luetgert of his alleged crime.

FREED FROM A GERMAN JAIL.

An American Forger Assisted to Liberty by the Freberg Consul.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

LITTLE ROCK, Arkansas, Aug. 7.—Harry Silberg, alias John W. Drayton, of Little Rock, who, according to State Department advices from Washington, has been released from a German prison through the efforts of the American Consul at Freiberg and escorted under guard out of Germany is known here. In his youth, he moved from Arkansas, arriving at his majority he went to Morocco. There, he was arrested in connection with a bank swindle by a telegraph operator and a bogus telegram. His mother got him out of the scrape. Silberg was next heard of at Rochester, New York. He ingratiated himself into the best society in that city and married into a wealthy family. He took his bride to San Francisco and had not been there long before, it is alleged, he committed a number of clever forgeries. He disappeared and had not been heard of here until he turned up in a German prison.

DARK DEED OF A SOCIETY SNOB

Louisville's Swells Seek to Mete Out Justice to Him.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 7.—J. F. Liebke, who created a sensation here last night, by attempting, it is alleged, to assault Miss Amelia Bayless of St. Louis, but formerly of this city, was arrested at the Galt House this morning and presented in court on a charge of detaining a woman against her will. The case was continued until Monday, Liebke being held under $5,000 bonds which have not been given.

Liebke is a well known young society man of St Louis, and a son of C. F. Liebke. The family are said to be wealthy and move in aristocratic circles. Miss Bayless is related to the best people in Kentucky, and has been a great belle in St. Louis during her family's brief residence there. A number of Louisville society swells attempted to capture Liebke last night to mete out summary justice, but he could not be found.

CONFIRMS THE REPORT.

Superintendent Bradford of the Pacific Coast Borax Works in Alameda has authoritatively substantiated the announcement concerning F. M. Smith's plans.

In regard to the private dispatch from the East, Mr. Bradford declares that there is no danger of the Alameda works being removed to New York. The Eastern refinery is already doing business and F. M Smith will continue to conduct both the Eastern and Western branches.

Several men have been taken from the Alameda works to go to New York, but their places have already been filled. The men at the Alameda works are loathe to talk about the plans as Mr. Smith always preserves the strictest secrecy concerning his plans, and they have followed his example.

The undersigned, after seven years' suffering, without being able to obtain any relief, resolved to see Dr. Wong, but I did not obtain any help. I then determined to see Dr. Tom She Bin, and in three months I was completely cured. I commenced feeling better soon after commencing his treatment, and I was all cured.

MRS. JENNIE SAUNFERS, 1016 West 4th st., Los Angeles, Cal.

This is to certify that Dr. Tom She Bin has cured me of that dreadful disease known as heart disease, and also of weak lungs. I do make this deposition for the especial benefit of those suffering similar ailments. I must say that I was treated by the best doctor in Chicago, and after I lost all hopes I concluded to come to San Francisco for a change of climate, and immediately I heard of the wonderful cures of Dr. Tom She Bin, so I consulted him, with such good luck that after one month and a half from the time he started to treat my case I felt entirely well.

MRS. E. FRENCK, 409 Thomas Street, Chicago, Ill.

I, the undersigned, do recommend Dr. Tom She Bin as one of the best doctors to cure rheumatism having been suffering for three years, and also been under the treatment of six skillful doctors for four months without feeling any relief. I determined to get myself under the care of Dr. Tom She Bin, who gave me immediate relief, and in the course of five weeks I was enjoying good health.

PANFILO MURILLO, Pomona, California.

My son, nine years of age, utterly prostrated with typhoid fever for six weeks, he was under the explicit care of hospital doctors, but without avail. All his body was declared incurable. I heard the name of Doctor Tom She Bin, and at once was induced to see him, and I left my son to his absolute care. Fifteen days after my son was able to play around the yard. I fully believe Doctor Tom She Bin saved my son's life.

CARRIE CONTRERAS, 630 Mission Road, Los Angeles, Cal.

San Francisco, February 14th, 1897.

The undersigned does hereby recommend Dr. Tom She Bin as the only competent doctor. He has cured me entirely from throat disease, which many doctors declared incurable. J. A. OWENS, Euclid Block, N. Los Angeles, Cal.

San Francisco, January 21st, 1897.

I, John A. Fain, do hereby certify that I suffered with piles for over twelve years. Dr. Tom She Bin cured me in very short time.

San Francisco, February 26th, 1897.

I have been suffering under the most dreadful disease for two years past and lost all hopes of recovering, being unable to move for four months. At last I concluded to take Dr. Tom She Bin's Wonderful Chinese herbs, and in six weeks after my health was completely restored.

J. E. MEDRAN, 756 Workman St., East Los Angeles, Cal.

Monterey, Cal., March 1st, 1897.

I write this letter for the benefit of any one who may be in trouble, as I have been.

About fourteen years ago I was taken sick. The doctors pronounced it ulceration of the stomach and said it would end in a cancer.

At times I would vomit a black and bloody looking matter, also a great deal of white mucus. The disease would make me very nervous and despondent. At different times during my ailment I would get some relief for a few months, then it would come back as bad or worse than ever. I doctored with several as good doctors as I could find in the East and also here in California, but none of them effected a cure.

I was advised to consult Dr. Tom She Bin, which I did about the 1st of October, 1892.

He said my trouble was the cancer of the stomach. I commenced taking his medicine immediately. For the first three or four months there seemed to be but a very little change. After that time I improved very fast and am now able to do quite a good day's work. I have every reason to believe he has effected a permanent cure for me. J. L. CARPENTER.

San Francisco, March 2, 1897.

I saw Dr. Tom She Bin's advertisement. I first come up to 615 Kearny street to feel my pulse. He tell me what trouble I had, was true. I had a pain over my body, and chilly. I put my case to him; first week I take Chinese Herb, one week I was great deal better. I been sick for six years. I go to white physician, cannot do me any good. I take Dr. Tom She Bin's Herbs six week, I was all well. I was cured about one year and never pain again.

MRS. J. SANGALL, 17 Lafayette Place, between Green and Union, Kearny and Dupont, San Francisco, Cal.

San Francisco, March 4th, 1897.

By these presents I do hereby recommend Dr. Tom She Bin as a successful doctor to cure the dreadful disease styled consumption, so common among all classes. He has restored my health in the short term of twenty days, for the trifling amount of $7.50 per day.

Signed, L. C. FLORES, 605 Upper Main St., Los Angeles, Cal.

San Francisco, March 5, 1897.

This is to certify that I have taken treatment from Dr. Tom She Bin for stomach trouble, and was cured in four weeks.

W. J. MORRISON, 1412½ Baker St., San Francisco, Cal.

San Francisco, March 6, 1897.

This is to certify that I have been entirely cured of stomach trouble by Dr. Tom She Bin in two months. I had tried several American physicians and they had failed to cure me.

MABEL BARBARER, Milpitas, San Jose, Cal.

I have taken treatment for my kidneys, that have bothered me for a long while, and also catarrh of the stomach, and also chronic diarrhoea, and was cured in two weeks by Dr. Tom She Bin, also blood poison in my thumb.

WM. E. BRYAN, No. 6 Martha place, San Francisco.

San Francisco, March 6, 1897.

I had gravel and kidney trouble four years. My friends sent me to Dr. Tom She Bin. He felt my pulse, and he told me what trouble I had. I put my case in his hands, and took herbs twice a day. In four weeks my troubles were all cured. Now my flesh is all good. The last three or four years I went to white doctors, but never did me any good. Now I have got well and am in good health.

JENS J. JENSEN, 213½ Clara St., San Francisco, Cal.

Geo. Osgoodby, author of the world-famous Murchison letter to Lord Sackville West, the English Embassador, in 1888, writes concerning Dr. Tom She Bin, now selling Chinese Teas and Herbs at the Sanitarium, 615 Kearny street, San Francisco, Cal., and says:

Pomona, Los Angeles Co., Cal., March 7, 1897.

For the benefit of those who are suffering with chronic diseases, I will say that after many years of severe suffering and futile treatment ended in Bright's disease of the kidneys, of which Dr. Tom She Bin completely cured me, after correctly and minutely describing my malady from the pulse, without asking a question. He is a medical marvel, and without a peer in his profession. Respectfully,

GEO. OSGOODBY.

San Francisco, March 13th, 1897.

I wish to give my testimony in behalf of Dr. Tom She Bin. It is about two months ago that I fell sick with influenza, being unable to procure no other help than that of domestic remedies. I fell worse and worse, until I was totally paralyzed. I was induced to consult Tom She Bin, and he, by the aid of his wonderful Chinese herbs, I felt somewhat relieved in twenty-four hours and he agreed to treat me for the sum of two hundred dollars, and now I feel grateful to the doctor for his efforts. Very truly,

HILARIO PRECIADO, Los Angeles, Cal.

This is to certify that Dr. Tom She Bin cured me of kidney trouble and stricture. Was sick for some time, but found no relief until I tried this doctor. He entirely cured me, and I have not been troubled since.

No wonder farmers are looking happy. The rise of 20 cents which has taken place on wheat during the past thirty days means $100,000,000 more in their pockets.

Can it be possible that General Miles has deserted? It seems impossible to [illegible] and his expedition cannot be attempted under the existing treaty.

Bryan's stock in trade becomes depleted as the Klondike craze [illegible]. It will be noticed, too, that he is shouting his wares in much lower tones than he was a couple of months ago.

Charley Ross has been found at last. He is on the Klondyke, and in addition to his being located, he will probably be sorry that his partner, Stanley, found Mrs Ross in San Francisco and gave to her the bag of gold Charles intended for another woman.

The horrors of the plague and famine in India form an appalling chapter of the Queen's jubilee year. Julian Hawthorne says that 5,000,000 people have thus far died of starvation, and if the present conditions are maintained, the death roll will be increased to 20,000,000 before December comes around.

That Alameda county was wise to retain her game warden is being proved by the experiences of those counties where the office was left unfilled. Game and fish have been indiscriminately slaughtered, regardless of the close seasons, and no one has got any benefit out of it except the poachers and pothunters.

Bicycle scorching is being stopped in every Eastern city by the imposition of severe penalties on the offenders. A Philadelphia young man who was hauled up the other day for breaking the law in that regard gave as his defense in court that he was in a hurry to see his girl and that under the constitution he was entitled to "the right to liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

Any one would think, by the way the editor of the Santa Maria Graphic writes, that a few thousand subscribers more or less, form no object to him. This is his advice to his patrons about the Clondyke: "Dawson is the business center and there is work all winter, and plenty of it. We say to able-bodied men, 'Go, and God bless you.' If you can't get a run, get a farm."

Murderers are expensive luxuries to a community. Durrant must have already cost San Francisco $20,000 or $25,000, for although this sum sounds large at first, when the time of the judges, prosecuting officers, detectives, stenographers, etc., is considered, it will soon be seen where the money lies. Even the speedy forms of justice in vogue in Australia could not dispose of Butler for less than $30,000, though most of that bill was, of course, footed up by the chase to America.

Senator Perkins has put an effectual damper on the hopes of Dr. McLean and those other agitators who have been endeavoring to disrupt the improvement of Oakland harbor. "The delegation from a State may be able to get an appropriation," he says, "but the delegation cannot say how it shall be expended. That is left to a corps of experienced and educated government engineers, and they alone can decide such a matter." As the engineers are unanimous in declaring that the work of dredging the harbor must be done first, nothing else need be said on the subject.

McKinley's stand on civil service is being generally commended all over the country, save by a few of the ultra-rabid Democratic organs. The order he recently issued has effectually routed the professional spoils-seekers, for he comes out flat-footed for those principles that are the very essence of civil service reform. "No removal," he says, "shall be made from any position in the civil service subject to competitive examination except for just cause and upon written charges filed with the head of the department or other appointing officer, and of which the accused shall have full notice and an opportunity to make defense."

It seems as if the race prejudices in the South are impossible to stamp out. Lynching is the general way of dealing with a colored criminal and a good indication of the sentiments that prevail may be obtained from the remarks of a Georgia judge the other day, who addressed a crowd of negroes in his court room as follows: "Go to your homes and stay there. This is a white man's country and you negroes may as well understand this and keep your place." These are dangerous remarks especially from the bench, for they show an encouragement of the idea that a black man is not entitled to the same rights as a white man.

THOSE FIRE ALARM BELLS.

Ex-City Attorney Johnson's advocacy of personal comfort is commendable from that standpoint, but it is very doubtful if the benefits are commensurate with the losses. He pleads for the abolishment of the present fire alarm system on the ground that the clanging of the bells jars the nerves and prohibits sleep in the particular sections where the iron-tongued warners are resounding.

Mr. Johnson is wrong in his premises when he says the bell system is antiquated. It is in vogue in most of the large cities of the country, and certainly is preferable to the discordant blasts of steam whistles, such as are given in San Francisco to announce a conflagration. As for there being no necessity to give a public alarm, it is certain that Mr. Johnson's contention in that regard will have few supporters. There is probably no announcement that creates more general interest than a fire alarm. If it occurs during the business hours of the day it gives to down-town tradespeople, shoppers and professional men the news of whether or not the fire is in the vicinity of their homes and if the alarm is given during the night, it is invaluable to a business man, who wants to know whether or not his down-town property is in danger. Furthermore, there are few people who do not display more than a passing interest as to where the fire is anyhow, so with all these and many other reasons for the maintenance of the system, there is little fear that Mr. Johnson's remonstrance will be effective, especially when it is remembered that Oakland has the credit of possessing the best fire alarm system in the West.

One queer combination has arisen as a result of the desire of the papers to secure the most notable correspondents for the Clondyke. Joaquin Miller was signed up by the Examiner but had unfortunately been previously secured by the New York World. The result is that Joaquin's letters appear simultaneously in the Examiner and the World, and the scoop that the "Monarch" gets here is discounted by the fact that the sister paper, the New York Journal, is at the same time being scooped by the World. The poet's correspondence is, of course, very interesting, but his imagination runs away with him at critical times, as witness the occasion when a couple of years ago he interviewed Evans and Contag for the Examiner and they afterwards denied that he had ever seen them.

Editor McPherson of the Santa Cruz Sentinel is a "natural-born" diplomat. After commenting on the passage of the high-hat ordinance in Oakland, he indicates that such a measure is unnecessary in his town, for he says "the beautiful women of Santa Cruz, those who are thoughtful of the rights and feelings of others, sit at theaters without their hats on." As the Santa Cruz women are all beautiful, or at least consider themselves so, there will be few hats worn in the theater down there from now on.

Ex-President Andrews of Brown University is taking advantage of the sympathy expressed for him because he lost his position for sticking up for silver, and the chances are that he will be a candidate against Bryan for the Presidency in 1900. Senator Teller will also be in the race.

A French chemist has a new kind of crystal that he says is harder than diamonds. If it is any harder to get than diamonds the chances are we won't see much of it around Oakland.

FASHION NOTES.

A summer girl out shopping this morning wore a dark blue lawn dress brocaded in pink carnations with shaded green leaves. The skirt was trimmed with three Swiss ruffles, each three inches wide and finished with Valenciennes edge. There were triple frills of the Swiss over the shoulders following the sleeve seam outline in the back, while in the front the frills narrowed into little ruffles as they were carried to the waist in V shape. The collar was a white stock with Swiss pleatings.

"One beauty of this gown," said the summer girl, "is that the white ruffles are all made on a feather stitched linen band, only the upper one having a shirred heading. These bands are hand run on the gown and when the trimming needs laundering it is easily removed and replaced. The gown itself is freshened by ironing on the wrong side."

Lawns, batistes and grass linens in stripes alternating with Valenciennes lace insertions, repeated through the entire width, are among the new arrivals in Kansas City. The material is especially popular for waists. The short, plump woman increases her apparent stature by having her blouse cut so that the insertion runs up and down, while her slender sister affects a stoutness not her own by having the insertion bands arranged crosswise.

White aprons for little girls will be an important item in school wear this fall. The full round skirt leaving an inch of the dress visible at the bottom, is finished with handkerchief hemstitching. Bretelles, with lace or embroidered bands, are worn over the shoulders and fastened to the waist band, both back and front. Another pretty fashion for the wee girl is the full length apron with front in one piece and the skirt fullness attained by extra widths in the back, shirred in from the low neck at the back and confined by strings set at the waist line and tied in a double bow-knot. These strings may be broadened into sashes and the apron made quite dressy by the aid of Swiss or Hamburg needle-work.

The gown pocket is a possibility again. It is inserted in the left side of the skirt under narrow ornamental tabs, which are carried down the front side seams from the waist line to a depth of twelve or fourteen inches.

A unique baby carriage just from Paris is made of rattan in swan shape. The baby sits in the back of the swan and is supposed to find amusement in driving with bright ribbons drawn around the swan's neck. The wheels are silver plated, and have pneumatic tires.

Rules for a Wife.

Isabel, Lady Burton, is a character of unfailing interest. The posthumous "Romance" of her life is a mine of human interest. It begins with her young girl adoration of her captain that continued until her death, which comes speedily after his, in old age. In her "seventeen rules for a wife," she set down a certain code of action for a woman whose life was to be linked with that of a man who until forty years of age had roamed the world from Mecca to Salt Lake. Several of the seventeen rules embody minor rules, but all of them are of spirited significance. The first one is about friendship and companionship; the second about care of him when ailing; the third about making home snug and attractive to intimates and people that interest him as well as to himself. The fourth rule is for self-improvement and education; the fifth about following on journeys at an hour's notice, ready to rough it; the sixth about generosity in affection and care in personal appearance, and the seventh about promoting her husband's interests, professional, social, and personal. The ten remaining selections of advice from Isabel Burton to herself contain so much philosophy that they shall be given in full.

"Never confide your domestic affairs to your female friends.

"Hide his faults from everyone and back him up through every difficulty and trouble.

"Never permit anyone to speak disrespectfully of him before you; and if anyone does, no matter how difficult, leave the room. Never permit anyone to tell you anything about him, especially of his conduct with regard to other women. Never hurt his feelings by a rude remark or jest. Never answer when he finds fault, and never reproach him when he is in the wrong, especially when he tells you of it, nor take advantage of it when you are angry; and always keep his heart up when he has made a failure.

"Keep all disagreements for your own room, and never let others find them out.

"Never ask him not to do anything—for instance, with regard to visiting other women or anyone you particularly dislike, trust him and tell him everything, except another person's secret.

"Do not bother him with religious talk, be religious yourself and give good example, take life seriously and earnestly, pray for and procure prayers for him, and do all you can for him without his knowing it, and let all your life be something that will win mercy from God for him.

"Cultivate your own good health, spirits, and nerves, * * * to enable you to carry out your mission.

"Never open his letters nor appear inquisitive about anything he does not volunteer to tell you.

"Never interfere between him and his family; encourage their being with him, and forward everything he wishes to do for them, and treat them in every respect (as far as they will let you) as if they were your own

"Keep everything going, and let nothing ever be at a standstill."

PLENTY OF GOLD IN PERU.

Malcolm King Says It Abounds in Indian-Infested Regions.

ALAMEDA AND PIEDMONT NOTES

A General Resume of Events in the Suburbs North and South.

BERKELEY, Aug. 9.—Malcolm G. King, civil engineer of this town, places great faith in the future of Peru as a gold mining center. King has been to Peru and believes that the gold of the Incas is still there, but the country is so full of hostile Indians that a force of armed men would have to do some brisk fighting before the mines could be reached. The Indians shoot poisoned arrows and are an extremely fierce and treacherous race. King went to Peru in 1859.

"The country was brought to my attention by a member of the company with whom I was a juror in a San Francisco court in '59," said Mr. King. "This man told me that when his party got to Tarma, a city of the Central Andes, they met one Dr. George Buckingham, an American, by whom they were told that it would be hard to get into the country, owing to the hostile Indians. They tried it, however, going to the Serro del Sal country. There, according to the story of the man I talked with, they found that there was plenty of gold, but the Indians were too hostile and too numerous. The miners were driven out of the country.

"A year later I went to Peru at the invitation of a friend who had mines there. He had to stay with his property, but gave me letters of introduction to parties in the interior. At Tarma I met Dr. Buckingham. He confirmed the story I had heard and said he had no doubt that the Serro del Sal was a rich gold country, but that it was a very risky proposition for any small company of miners to enter there. I went on further into the interior to Montanya. The stories of the dangerous natives were repeated and there is no doubt that some heavy fighting will have to be done before the country is explored. I was told some stories that would indicate the existence of remarkably rich gold finds and I have no doubt that there is a good deal of truth in the tales. Some day a party will go there strong enough to oppose the Indians and their deadly poisoned arrows and then the world may hear of another rich source of gold."

The State University opens today, when entrance examinations commence. Recitations will begin Thursday afternoon for the higher classes. Tuesday, August 17th, the freshmen will be organized for instruction.

The millions of dollars that have recently been added to the revenue of the University and the prospects of new buildings which will excel all others in the world have had an exhilarating effect on the college. Various new departures have been planned. A new philosophy building is being erected, and Professor William Howison has announced that a summer school of philosophy will be held next year, which will be conducted by Professor William James of Harvard.

The new Agricultural College is nearing completion. Work is almost completed on the addition to the gymnasium. The botany building and the class room building have not yet been started. The bids for the latter were all considered too high.

The register of the University of California for the year 896-97 was issued today. It shows the great need for the new class room building. In the colleges at Berkeley there are 898 male and 598 female students, making 1,496 in all. There are 574 male and 146 female students in the professional colleges in San Francisco and one man at the Lick Observatory, so the total number of students in the University is 2,211. This does not include those enrolled only for extension courses. The officers and faculty of the University number 316.

William Downer and Samuel Dickson freshmen of the class of 1901 at the State University, intend to pay their way through college. They have established the Students' Dairy Company with one cow as capital.

A new organization for the benefit of self-sustaining students, similar to the long-established Students' Aid Society, has been formed at the State University. It is known as the Students' Home Supply Company, and is managed by E. H. Rulofson and H. W. Hill, the two collegians who organized the Students' Transfer Company last year. Through the new organization a large number of young men have found employment and have been enabled by it to reduce their living expenses to a minimum.

At the present time there are over 200 students in the University who are working either the whole or a part of their way through college.

Rev. Dr. H. A. Ketchum, who recently resigned from the pastorate of the First Presbyterian Church of Berkeley, has accepted a call to the pulpit of the First Presbyterian Church in Salem, Oregon. He will enter upon his new field of work at the beginning of next month. His new church has a membership of 300 and is one of the leading churches of Salem.

Clarence Dickerson has been appointed business manager of the Occident, the weekly paper published by University students.

Al Lean, C. P. Nott and Everett Brown have arranged with Professor Magee to select their freshmen footballers from among the men examined by him.

The Assessor's report shows the valuation of the property within the county to be $93,528,742. To this amount $528,675 is added by the Auditor, the sum which was left off the assessment rolls by the County Assessor in his recapitulation of the valuation of property.

The County Board of Equalization reduced the total valuation $1,896,021, making the assessed valuation of the property within the county, $92,161,396.

DAVIS IS NAMED.

Alameda County Thinks She Is Entitled to the Governorship.

A QUIET LITTLE CAUCUS.

Mr. Davis Says Republicans Must Be of One Mind.

IS NOT YET A CANDIDATE.

Others Who Are Anxious to Succeed Governor Budd.

Yesterday morning the Examiner announced that some friends of William R. Davis had decided to put him forward as a candidate for Governor.

In the presidential election Alameda was the banner Republican county, and not merely that, but she was so far to the front that there could hardly be said to be a second. She gave 5000 majority for McKinley and saved California for Republicanism and sound money. This was a good turn which deserved a liberal reward, and there is quite a general willingness to concede that when the next Republican State Convention meets, Alameda county shall be recognized in a substantial manner. She is bound to be very influential in the party assemblage because, on the basis of the McKinley vote, she will have a much larger representation of delegates than she ever had before.

A number of leading Republicans who have been discussing the matter in a general way for some time, held an informal conference Saturday afternoon. It was held in the office of Mr. H. A. Powell, in San Francisco, but only Oaklanders were present; it was only a small preliminary gathering and it was held on the other side of the bay because it happened to be more convenient for several of the gentlemen to meet there than anywhere else. It was the opinion of those present that hardly another man could be found in California so eligible as a candidate as Mr. Davis.

Mr. Davis, however, will not consent to become a candidate for the nomination unless he can be assured that he is the choice of the entire Republican party of this county.

Mr. Davis says he is not yet a candidate, and adds:

"It has been represented to me by a number of Republicans of this county that Alameda county is entitled to the Republican nominee for the head of the Republican ticket, owing to the fact that if it had not been for this county last year the State would have gone Democratic. It has also been represented to me that my name should be used in this connection. To the former representation I agree, but to the latter I have said that my name could be used only if the county unanimously desires it. I will not be the candidate of a faction or of any clique, but if it is felt that my name is representative of a harmonious party in this county and is of use to the party at large I will allow its use in connection with that office."

Lou Brown, Secretary of State, who was formerly a resident of Haywards, is also being mentioned as a candidate for the office, while General Barnes, and Tom Flint of Los Angeles are also said by their friends to be in the race.

The Democrats will probably take up Judge Maguire, though there are several others, including Phelan, Budd, and White, who may also decide to seek gubernatorial honors.

COLORED DESPERADOES BITE THE DUST.

Armed Deputies Succeed In Doing Up the Two Desperate Lightfoots.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Aug. 9.—The negro desperadoes, Allen Lightfoot and son, had a pistol fight yesterday with five officers of the law on a road which runs along the river in Coffee county. The negroes have been wanted for some time for various felonies and had defied the officers to arrest them. Five deputy sheriffs encountered them in the narrow road and a cross fire was opened at once, many shots being exchanged. The elder Lightfoot was shot through the ear and killed. The son was shot in both legs and in the shoulder. He will also die. None of the officers were seriously wounded.

May Get Life Imprisonment.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—A despatch to the Herald from Panama says:

"A despatch from the Herald's correspondent in Medellin says that Charles Radford of Alabama has been condemned to death for the murder several months ago of Charles Simonds, a wealthy merchant of California. In all probability the sentence will be commuted to life imprisonment, as capital punishment here is never exercised save in exceptional cases.

The anniversary of the battle of Boyaca, at which the Spanish yoke was practically thrown off by Colombia, Venezuela, and Ecuador, is now being celebrated. During the recent exercises several persons were injured by standing too close to the rifles of the troops, and being hit by the wadding in the blank cartridges."

A MOTHER MURDERS AN ILL-FAVORED SON.

She Could Not Bear to Look on a Face That Was Disfigured.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

QUITMAN (Ga.), Aug. 9.—A fisherman discovered the body of a six-year-old-boy floating on the surface of a pond near this place, and later, identified it as the son of Mrs. Idella Powell Banks, a widow owning a farm just outside of Quitman.

The actions of the mother when notified of the discovery aroused the suspicions of the coroner and she was subsequently arrested and placed in jail. Here she was visited by a minister to whom she confessed having murdered her child. The reason she gave was that he was too ugly to permit to live and was a constant source of embarrassment to her on this account. She said that she walked by the pond and when she tried to push him in he resisted with all his feeble strength. She has broken down completely in jail, and says she wants to be hanged as soon as possible.

The child's face was disfigured by a heavy birthmark.

LOST THEIR LIVES ON A CRUISE.

The Remains of Two Young Men Picked Up in Notae Bay.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—A special to the World from Sag Harbor, N. Y., says:

"The body of Joseph Gilbert of the Gorham Manufacturing Company, New York, has been found floating in the Notae bay by the steam launch Lorna Doone. The sloop Eureka towed it to Sag Harbor, where it was identified by the young man's brother, A. S. Gilbert, a New York lawyer. Young Gilbert, who was 20 years of age, left Sag Harbor with a lad named Bartella of Perth Amboy, Wednesday morning, in a small sailing canoe. Their destination was Riverhead. Thursday, the canoe was picked up on the beach with a hole in it and the boom broken. The body of young Bartella has already been picked up at Southend, near here."

ANOTHER BICYCLE RECORD BROKEN.

A Norwood Man Lowers the Two Hundred Mile Time.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

BOSTON, Aug. 9.—Warren S. Taylor, president of the Norwood, Mass., Cycle Club, has just made a successful attempt to lower the 200-mile bicycle road record (paced) of 17 hours, 28 minutes, 28 seconds, held by J. G. Graves of Springfield, the course being between Norwood and Taunton. Taylor's elapsed time was 15 hours, 4 minutes, and his actual riding time, 12 hours, 36 minutes.

A despatch from New Bedford, Mass., announces that J. Eugene McGuinness of New Bedford made a double century from New Bedford to Webster, Mass., and returned, breaking the record of Graves by 22 minutes.

SHE MUST REMAIN OUT OF AMERICA.

The Prince of Wales' Britannia Cannot Be Brought Here.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—A great deal of interest has been excited among yachtsmen in this city by the appearance in one of the morning papers of an advertisement offering for sale the Prince of Wales' famous yacht Britannia. It has been known for a long time that the heir apparent to the British crown desired to dispose of his fast cutter. Several unsuccessful attempts have been made to sell her on the other side. The possibility of her sale here is out of the question, as recent legislation makes it virtually impossible to buy her. A bill passed by Congress and which became a law last February provides against the purchase of foreign-built vessels by Americans.

COMING AROUND THE HORN.

New York Clondykers to Sail Soon for the Gold Regions.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—The first ship sailing from New York direct to the Clondyke gold fields is advertised to leave this city about August 21st. It is to be sent by the New York and Alaskan Gold Exploring and Trading Company. The company has not yet selected its vessel, but it promises to dispatch a steamship capable of carrying safely 200 passengers and 1,500 tons of freight. It says the ship will make the voyage from New York around Cape Horn to Juneau in fifty or sixty days. More than fifty names have been listed for the voyage. Not more than 200 passengers will be allowed to embark. The cost per passenger, including birth, meals and transportation of 500 pounds of baggage direct to Juneau is to be $175.

Admitted to Harvard.

Mr. George Chase, son of Mr. Chase of the firm of Kohler & Chase will enter Harvard as a member of the incoming Freshman Class. He entered University Academy, Alameda, in August 1896, and graduated from that school in May 1897, having thereby saved a whole half year of valuable time. Mr. Chase received a few days ago official notice of his admission to Harvard. He will be an excellent representative of University Academy in the far East, and a credit to this city.

SLEEPS NEITHER NIGHT NOR DAY.

A Man in St. Louis to Whom Much Needed Rest Never Comes.

The Strange Effect of an Overdose of Quinine Years Ago.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 9.—John O. Stutte, carpenter and builder has been awake twenty-five years. His last slumber came so many years ago that he has forgotten what it is like to lie down at night and awake refreshed and rejuvenated. Sleep is an unknown quantity with Stutte. He either lies upon his bed and gazes on the stars or, if in a restless mood, takes long walks into the country, returning at daybreak to begin work in his little shop, just north of the house. His neighbors call him "The man who never sleeps." Stutte attributes his sleeplessness to a noise which continually roars in his head like a cataract. At times it sounds like the buzz and whir of wheels sawing their way through heavy timber. Again the sounds resemble escaping steam, but, at times, they mingle in a horrible deafening roar. Owing to the noises in his head Stutte does not hear readily. He says that the ringing in his ears was caused by an overdose of quinine which was administered to him in 1872. He took fifty-two grains at one dose and when he awoke next day he heard a noise in his head which has remained there ever since, keeping him awake every night and day for twenty-five years. Stutte is 70 years old. He carries his age gracefully and does not look the worse for his long siege of wakefulness.

SILENT SPECTRES FROM THE EARTH.

A Mystery Created by the Find of a Number of Skeletons.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

VALLEY, Neb., Aug. 9.—A grading company at work near here exhumed nineteen skeletons. All the bodies were in a good state of preservation, and all were evidently buried with their clothes on and without coffins. Five were females. The bodies had probably been in the ground fifteen or twenty years, but no resident of the locality can recall any burying ground located here, nor does rumor relate of anything in the past that will account for the presence of the skeletons. The bodies were covered with only a few feet of earth and were placed together in a large trench. Apparently the skeletons are those of white people.

THE MORGAN SUSPECTED.

She Is Being Watched So That Arms May Not Go Abroad.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Aug. 9.—The schooner Blanche Morgan, Captain Wasson, which was taken in charge by government officials Saturday while loading ammunition, will probably be given a clean bill of health and allowed to depart. A rumor that arms were to be shipped from this port to Cuba has apparently exerted the United States War Department, and the United States cutter Fern, since its arrival Saturday, has been seeking traces of any suspicious foreign-bound vessel. When the Morgan tied up at Miller's wharf and commenced to load ammunition, Collector Goddard, in company with officers from the Fern, boarded the boat. The statement of Captain Wasson that the ammunition was being shipped for the United States forces at Governor's Island, did not seem satisfactory, and a deputy from the custom house was put aboard until inquiries could be made.

Chilian Ministry Sustained.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—A special to the Herald from Valparaiso, Chili, says:

"The chamber of deputies has passed a vote of confidence in the ministery by a vote of 39 to 34. This action in the chamber caused considerable surprise as the cabinet has been violently attacked in the chamber time after time. A prominent conservative stated that every indication is now that the ministry will fall, owing to internal dissensions. The outlook now is that there will be no permanent ministry in Chili until the liberal parties reunite against the conservatives."

DANIEL ANDREA'S DUAL MISFORTUNE.

His Wife Dies While He Lies in the Receiving Hospital.

Last night Mrs. S. Andrea, wife of Daniel Andrea, who was injured at the Judson Iron Works Saturday last, died at her home, 1250 Center street. The deceased was 50 years of age and had been subject to apoplexy. She was found yesterday morning at her home in an unconscious condition by people who had called to inquire as to her husband's condition. She was unable to speak, but it is believed that she was shocked by the news of the injury to her husband.

Andrea is still in the Receiving Hospital, as a consequence of the amputation of his left leg, which was performed Saturday last.

Oakland Theater.

The bright farce comedy, "Mrs. Partington and her son Ike," will be given to-night at the Oakland Theatre by the Elleford Company, which will close its engagement at the Theatre this week. During the week of August 16th, the Theatre will be closed to be repainted and generally renovated.

Hurt in a Collision.

A collision occurred between a car of the East Oakland electric line and a wagon at East Fifteenth street and Fifth avenue Saturday night. The car was badly damaged and one of the passengers, Mrs. W. T. Webb, was slightly injured.

COLONEL DIMPFEL IS DETERMINED.

He Will Stop Jessie Newman and Pearl Lunds Dancing Tonight.

They Have Obtained a Permit to Kick and Now Intend to Appear.

The action of the W. C. T. U. ladies in regard to skirt dancing by little girls has aroused Colonel Dimpfel, secretary of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children. He has accordingly issued a mandate forbidding little Pearl Lund and Jessie Newman to dance at the Oakland Theatre this week.

This mandate when conveyed to the girls raised a storm of protest. The Colonel had permitted the girls to dance at Blair Park Sunday afternoons for money and now the young women could not understand the sudden pricking of the Colonel's conscience over their dancing in a theatre on week nights.

Colonel Dimpfel was firm and withstood the arguments of the children's parents and even defied a permit from the Mayor.

"Get your permits, get all the permission in the world," shouted the Colonel, "as long as you have not my permission you cannot dance in the theatre, and I'll stop you if you try."

The threat sounded final and the young girls who were really anxious to earn money by their dancing were in a quandary. They decided to appeal their case to Colonel Dimpfel's superior officer, Secretary Parnell of San Francisco.

Secretary Parnell listened to the girls' story, found that they were between fourteen and sixteen years of age, and consented to their dancing.

He read Colonel Dimpfel's letters to their parents, and characterized them as "saucy." In view of the fact that Colonel Dimpfel had given permission to the girls to dance Sunday afternoons at Blair Park, Secretary Parnell thought that he ought to let them dance in the theatre.

Colonel Dimpfel is now crushed by the ultimatum of his superior officer, in the shape of a permit for the girls to dance. He is still going to stop the performance if the girls go on the stage. The girls are determined, the Colonel is determined, and there will probably be a scene at the Oakland to-night which is not down on the bills.

THREE TIES MADE.

Remarkable Shooting at the Blue Rock Matches Yesterday Afternoon.

The Heeseman cup event was won by Captain W. H. Seaver of the Reliance Gun Club at the Club ranges yesterday afternoon. The event was not won, however, until Weaver had shot off three ties with "Sands."

At each of the three ties both men broke twenty straight birds. The fourth trial was at twenty-five "clays," Weaver breaking twenty-four and "Sands" twenty-two.

The results were made at the regular monthly shoot of the gun club.

The results were as follows:

First event—ten targets—Score: Captain W. H. Seaver, 10, "Sands" 10, Mitchell 6, Wagner 7, Robbins 5, Stewart 7, Knight 9, Wills 4.

Second event—Twenty targets, known traps, unknown angles (Heeseman cup event). Score: Captain Seaver 19, "Sands" 19, Mitchell 15, Robbins 16, Stewart 18, Wills 10, Knight 15. In this event the ties were made between Seaver and "Sands."

Third event (merchandise shoot)—Thirty known traps, unknown angles. Score: Captain Seaver 27, "Sands" 24, eight targets out of 25 and "Sands" but thirteen out of the same number.

A BICYCLE SHIP.

The Latest Invention of Wilber, the Well Known Trick Rider.

E. G. Wilber, the trick bicycle rider, has invented a bicycle ship and he and his wife will start from East Oakland to Los Angeles this afternoon. Wilber says he can make the journey in four days.

The ship is an ordinary bicycle rigged with a sail.

Wilber has gained some fame by riding his wheel over high trestles and tight wires.

Fruit Trade Increasing.

The largest cargo of fruit yet landed on Oakland wharves in one day came in yesterday. The San Lorenzo came into the Clay street wharf with about ninety tons for the Eleventh street dealers and the Mary C landed about fifty tons at the Adams wharf for Hunt, Hutch & Co. Business was lively at both landings and there was a general clean-up at ruling prices. Besides fruit there was a considerable shipment of cantaloupes and garden produce.

Was Afraid to Die.

David Smith, an inmate of the County Infirmary, left that institution Friday with the avowed intention of committing suicide. He was followed by a keeper. Coming to Oakland the two started across the bay to San Francisco, and when opposite Goat Island, Smith walked to the rail of the ferry steamer as if to jump overboard, but at the critical moment, the old man's heart failed him, and he turned from the rail in horror. He was taken in charge by the keeper.

"The World" on Clondyke.

This is how the New York World sums up the Alaskan gold excitement:

There is probably a lot of gold in the Clondyke mines.

A great many people will get rich in working them. But a great many more will grow poor in the same undertaking.

Two or three facts may safely be taken for granted:

One is that there is not gold enough in any placer mine to disturb the relative value of gold and other commodities.

A second is that not everybody who goes prospecting comes back rich.

A forth is that truth which Irving impressed in one of his wierdest stories, that there is more gold to be got out of that digging of the soil which produces cabbages and agricultural products than out of any other.

The World does not advise any young man to give up a fair salary in order to make his fortune in the Clondyke mines.

A Lost Art Recovered.

How any one who cannot sing a note or is bothered with throat trouble can develop a perfect voice of three octaves without a particle of strain on the throat, in three months' time. MISS LOUISA NELSON, 121 Eddy st., San Francisco.

The widow appeals to the sympathy of even the most callous-hearted. Here is a woman still in the springtime of life, deprived of the stay and support upon which she had every right to depend, and her future overshadowed by the loss of the one man in all the world upon whom she had centered her love and affection. A man has no right to sacrifice his life in the mad race for money, by neglecting his bodily health. A man owes it to himself and to his wife and children to live a long and helpful life. If a man would live he must keep health.

Health is a matter of a little patch here and there. Look after the little ailments and the big ailments will take care of themselves. They will never come. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery keeps the body in perfect health. It promptly eradicates the little ailments that bring serious illness. If the serious malady has already arrived it promptly cures it by removing the cause. It corrects all disorders of the digestion, invigorates the liver and makes the appetite keen and hearty. It makes the assimilation of food perfect and supplies the blood with the life-giving elements that build new and healthy tissue and firm muscles. It tones and builds up the nerves. It drives impurities and disease-germs from every organ of the body. It cures all diseases due to overwork and worry and faulty nutrition. It is an unfailing remedy for weak lungs, spitting of blood, shortness of breath, severe cough, bronchitis, asthma and kindred affections. It cures 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption.

Mr. Isaac B. Downs, of Spring Valley, Rockland Co., N. Y., writes: "For three years I had suffered from that terrible disease, consumption, and heart-disease. Before taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery I had wasted away to a skeleton; could not sleep nor rest, and many times wished to die to be out of my misery. Step by step, the signs and realities of returning health slowly but surely developed themselves while taking the 'Discovery.' Today I tip the scales at 187, and am well and strong. The 'Golden Medical Discovery' has also cured my daughter of a very bad ulcer located on the thigh."

TWO GREAT BALL GAMES.

Santa Cruz Is Easily Defeated by the Reliance "Giants."

The Beachcombers Are No Match for Oakland's Favorite Tossers.

The Reliance aggregation of baseball tossers of this city again demonstrated their right to be called the superior of any team on the Coast by defeating the heretofore invincible Santa Cruz team both Saturday and Sunday.

Saturday's game was by far the most sensational game of baseball played this season, when the Reliance team wrenched victory from almost certain defeat by scoring a total of six runs in the last inning and winning by a majority of three.

The score stood four to one in favor of Santa Cruz and all hope of scoring the necessary three runs to even up matters or four to win seemed dubious, but they did it and how well the "Giants" batted out a victory is a matter of history.

Sunday's game was never in doubt. The Reliance heavy hitters "caught on" from the first, and try as they would the beach-combers could not stop them. At the end of the ninth inning the Reliance won by the handsome majority of twenty to five.

There were at least 10,000 people at Central Park yesterday to witness the game and those who went with the expectation of enjoying themselves were certainly not disappointed.

In almost every point of the game the Reliance team outplayed its opponents.

Reliance was first at the bat and knocked out three runs. Santa Cruz failed to score. In the second inning, Santa Cruz made one run, a performance which was repeated in the fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth innings.

THE VALUE OF PLEASANTON.

Personal Gossip and Notes of Improvement of All Kinds.

The latest happenings in the several towns of the county during the past week are recorded below:

(From the Haywards Journal.)

HAYWARDS.

The party of hunters that left July 11th for Trinity County, composed of G. S. Langan, F. Hollenon, Dr. A. J. Powell, R. Reid and William Bliss returned home Thursday night. They had a fine time and killed twenty-one deer, but did not run across any bear. It took a pack train of about twenty mules to take them over the mountains, requiring a two days' trip.

The extensive drying of apricots in this valley this season gives employment to a large number of people, and was the best move its fruit men could make. There is already a steady demand for dried fruit, particularly apricots, and it is a sign of good prices ahead, when buyers are already in the field bidding for our fruit.

A number of car loads has already been shipped, and everything points to satisfactory prices. There is room for a drying company and it is possible that such an industry may spring up next year.

Mrs. Mary M. Pann, beloved wife of Mr John Pann, passed away last Sunday morning at 11:15 o'clock, after many months of suffering. Deceased enjoyed the esteem and friendship of a wide circle of friends, and her untimely death is a great loss to them. The deceased was a native of Azores Islands and leaves a husband and six children—four sons and two daughters, William, Johnnie, Gussie and Joseph, and Misses Mamie and Lilian Pann, besides a mother and brother, Mrs Malinta and Wm. Marieta, of San Leandro, also other relatives in California and Azores Islands.

The B street matter came up again and President Haar was chosen a committee to wait on the Board of Supervisors in behalf of the town. After interviews with the property owners interested a plan was devised whereby the county will be asked to take the water that comes to the street from outside the town limits along Slaughter house street to San Lorenzo Creek, and the town will take care of the water that comes into the street lower down. If this will be agreed to then the street will be graded and macadamized.

A fire started in Nick Anderson's field in Dublin Canyon Thursday about noon and burned over fifteen acres of stubble and destroyed twenty-five sacks of wheat. The fire started from a pile of a [illegible] left by the thresher. The crew came to the rescue and finally put the fire out.

Frank Munyon has purchased William Lawrence's cottage and lot on Chestnut street.

PLEASANTON.

(From the Pleasanton Times.)

Town Assessor Neal turned over the assessment roll of the town to the Board of Trustees at the meeting last Monday. It shows a total valuation for assessment purposes of $ 2,?60. These figures are subject to change by the Board of Equalization. Compared with last year's assessment it shows an increase of about $[illegible] increase in the valuation of the real estate, an increase in improvements and personal property, and a decrease in the amount of mortgages held against property within the town limits. With over $1,594.30 in the town treasury and no debts to pay it shows that Pleasanton is a very prosperous community.

The wedding of Andrew Bruce Pickard and Mae Lewis Downing took place Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents. The reception room and parlor were decorated with evergreens and flowers. (From the Washington Press.)

The public school opened Monday morning with H. W. Lynch, principal, Miss M. Dorr and L. Hammerly in the intermediate, and Mr. A. Rogers, primary department.

The medal shoot on Sunday proved very interesting. That gold medal still belongs to the club and from present appearances will remain so for some time to come, as it will be rather a hard job for any of the shooters to carry it off three times in succession. Richard Blacow carried off the medal with a score of forty-five, with Whipple a close second with a score of forty-three. Ross carried off the silver medal.

THE ASSOCIATED CHARITIES

Reports From the Secretary Show Good Work Has Been Done.

Many Poor and Sick Are Aided Through the Society's Resources.

Mrs. Helen Kelly, secretary of the Associated Charities, made the following report for the Society's work in July:

"During the month of July, 1897, there were sixty-three applications for relief. Of this number seventeen were new family cases, fourteen new single cases, twenty-one re-current family cases and eleven re-current single cases.

"Referred to and assisted by the Oakland Benevolent Society twenty-three family cases and eight single cases; referred to the African M. E. Church, two single cases; Fabiola Hospital admitted three persons; the Chabot Home admitted one family and one single case; the Associated Charities of San Francisco, one family; the Supervisors one family case and four single person; secured one free license.

The employment bureau, independent of the woodyard, found work for twenty-six persons. Three women and one man secured permanent places and seventeen men and five women worked nineteen and one-fourth days. Of the twenty-six employment cards sent out those returned show $27.40 had been earned. Thirty meal tickets and three lodging tickets were returned.

At the Woodyard employment has been given to fifty-one men and paid for as follows: Fifty-one meal tickets, $5.10; nine bread tickets, 90 cents; thirteen ferry tickets, $1.30; one medicine, 10 cents. Total $7.40.

"The superintendent during the month made sixty calls.

"At a joint meeting of the Associated Charities and Oakland Benevolent Society held in October, 1889, a discussion arose in regard to ways and means to carry on the work of the societies.

"Rev. J. K. McLean's idea was that some Sabbath be set apart as "Charity Day." Every minister in the city be requested to deliver a sermon upon the "Oakland Benevolent Society and the Associated Charities," the collection to go toward the relief work.

"Rev. C. W. Wendte presented a letter from J. S. Howard, president of the Choral Society in which it was suggested that the various charitable societies give a concert, the proceeds to be given to charity. Honorable E. W. Playter now deceased, suggested that a canvass for subscriptions should be made. The canvassers should go in pairs and should explain the connection of the two organizations." Mr. Playter emphasized the fact that the Associated Charities would never be a complete success until they had a woodyard and labor bureau. Eight years have elapsed since this eventful meeting. The woodyard is open, and employment has been given to 2,796 men during the past two months.

"The employment or labor bureau has found permanent work for thirty persons, and day's work for one hundred and thirty-five persons. These one hundred and thirty five persons have earned $485.35. In connection with the labor department we desire some tools, such as rakes spades, lawn mowers, bucksaws, wheelbarrows, and step ladders—these implements to be temporarily loaned to men willing and anxious to work.

"Fears are entertained unless funds are at once raised, the woodyard will be closed and the laundry is at a standstill for want of sufficient means.

"Cannot the plan suggested by Mr. Playter in 1889 be carried out? Will not some one consent to canvass for subscriptions or memberships, so that our unemployed can be provided for. Let the woodyard be continued, open the laundry and start the Pingree system.

"Respectfully submitted,
HELEN S. KELLY.
Superintendent and Secretary.

"Whereas, The values fixed are in most instances believed to be higher than those fixed in other important counties.

"Whereas, These assessments are to be considered by the State Board of Equalization, and unless there is a proper showing made there is danger of the entire assessment being raised.

"Now therefore be it Resolved, That this Board of Supervisors take all necessary steps to protect the assessment of the county against any increase by the State Board of Equalization, and to that end the Assessor be and he is hereby authorized to have compared the assessment of important counties with property of like character, in order that it may be satisfactorily demonstrated to the State Board that the assessment of this county should not be raised, but that in fact, compared with other counties, the assessment is excessive and should be lowered.

"Resolved further, That the expenses of traveling in collecting such data be paid out of the County General Fund; provided, however, that no salaries or wages shall be included as part of such expenses; and provided further, that the entire expense shall not exceed the sum of two hundred ($200) dollars."

SUNDAY'S SERMONS

"Divine Meaning of the Rush to the Clondyke Gold Fields."

REV. PHILIP GRAIF'S THEME.

He Says a Desire for Nuggets Is as Lofty as Passion for Truth.

DILLE IN OAKLAND.

Methodist Divine Speaks at the Thirty-Fourth Street Church.

At the Twenty-first Street Baptist Church last evening, the pastor, Rev. Philip Graif preached on the theme, "The Divine Meaning of the Rush to the Clondyke Gold Fields." He said among other things:

"Just as every subject has, besides its baser, seamy side, aspects of larger breadth and beauty, where an ampler ether, a diviner air plays round the negatives, so this gold craze presents us with some of the higher meanings of the soul action.

"First this rush to the Clondyke gold fields obviously explains many unconscious processes of colonizing and empire-building—how, by lure of the precious metal, out of rich, well-watered lands, races have migrated and armies marched, and thus, by the commingling of Aryan Caucasian bloods, a new country has been cultivated and a better type of man evolved. Though life under the midnight sun as a rule be too austere for the dwellers in the temperate zone, the gold fever will likely, in course of time, bring to bear upon Alaskan lands all the potent stimuli and culture of our ever-busy civilization. When God wishes to make the Arctic ice to break into blossom he implants in the hearts of thousands a wild, adventurous discontent that enjoys the crunching of frozen floes and takes kindly to a cold bath in the swirl and foam of the White Horse rapids.

"Again, these knights-errant of gold flocking together from all quarters, will come into sympathetic touch, while sectional prejudices will melt away and exclusion or provincial pride will yield to the sweet and magnetic influence of a universal brotherhood. When the angel-chant of Bethlehem, even in the crude shape of a gold-digging friendship, is somewhat incarnated it rises divinely above the level of a point-blank sordidness.

"Furthermore, the Clondyke rush may prove a help not on in turning the hewer of foot argosy, dainty of limb and lily-white of finger, into a hardy, virile, well-knit specimen of manhood. Talk as we please of the peerless beauty of balmy skies, it is not the easy armchair or the summer hammock, but the sharp punch of hunger and cold that develop grit and glory. Rather than the orange-blossom the snow-flake stands forth as the fit symbol of thought and progress, of empire and civilization.

"The Clondyke gold-fields, in so far as they teach and evoke fore-sight and thrift, industry and self denial, sagacity and skill, are good schools of discipline and manhood. In the last analysis, better than the plums of gold picked off bonanza bowers, are the riches of self-reliance, the invincible determination and courage, the fertility of resources, the jaunty optimism of cheer and hope that come from facing dark and perilous hours. All progress and culture are the fruit of suffering. Alaskan gold glitters, in a deeper sense, not so much from the polish of frost as from the fact that it is washed and enriched by the tears and blood of human suffering and sacrifice.

"To desire gold dust and nuggets is just as natural and lofty as the scholar's quest and passion for truth, the artist's search for beauty, the patriot's love of country or the saint's pursuit of holiness. The work of a gold-mine may be made as sacramentally pure and noble as to lift up holy hands in the sanctuary or give help to a Jane and forlorn Lazarus. A genius for accumulation is as proper as a taste for art or a strong, clear bent for oratory or statesmanship. The universe is a divine workshop, and man can commune with the universal Creator as well through pick-axe and shovel as through prayer-books and temples of worship. Every honest toiler, in so far as he lives for high things, marches side by side with the immortal thinkers and seers.

"The Clondyke rush also reveals a fresh and emphasizes the truth that man in spite of his materialistic age, is, in the essence of his being, an idealist. He lives not above by matter-of-fact realities, but in great part by expectations and hopes. Just as Abraham journeyed toward an invisible city, ever haunted by this bright enchanting vision of faith, so the Clondyke gold-hunter, yea all of us, live under the spur and inspiration of some fair, but unrealized dream. Better be a poor, jolted, quenchless chaser of an elusive gleam of truth and beauty than a gross, earth-grubbing creature that is merely satisfied with present horizons.

"The Clondyke gold fields may bring many a tough sinner to his senses. Men are often spiritualized by hard necessities. In times of extreme danger, in storm or famine, stubborn knees learn to meekly bow and infidel lips to breathe a penitential prayer.

"Clondyke claims may spark e with riches beyond the treasures of the Orient, yet without morals or virtue. Wealth is a Pandora's box of countless ills. If gold nuggets are allowed to eclipse God and duty, they are lures and spells of incalculable harm. A gold mine may have its heroisms as well as the martyr-fagot or the battle field, but its trend is not apt to be Godward. Simply to live to feast the eye with gew-gaws, or tickle the palate with rich dainties, or array the skin in purple and fine linen is to make coffers of corn a blight instead of a blessing. Better crusts and poverty than gay, gilded self-seeking. Better stagger into an Arctic grave than be a limp, idle, useless member of society.

"No doubt it is a glorious thing to bring home in oil can and canvas sack, in glass jar and buck-skin pouch, gold dust and nuggets of fabulous value but without grace or piety, wisdom or love the richest Clondyke fortunes are but as glittering snare and a mocking delusion. However splendidly El Dorado shafts and river beds may pan out in that belt of twilight and thick-ribbed ice, of zero weather and famine haunt, one thing is certain—that millions of dollars, unsanctified by nobility of soul, are after all not the most enviable possessions. In short, Clondyk, wealth or any other that is used as an end for mere self-gratification and personal luxury instead of as an unselfish instrument for the good of others, in so far for it has lost its divine significance and value."

DR. DILLE'S SERMON.

He Holds That True Happiness Is Found Only in the Cross.

Dr. E. R. Dille of San Francisco preached yesterday morning at the Thirty-fourth Street Methodist Church which was crowded to the doors.

In brief, Dr. Dille said:

"The one great truth of religion and human relation is life through death, and the cross is the emblem of that truth. Many people follow pleasure, many long for time, many pursue wealth, but true happiness is to be found only in life for life, in sacrifice, in the cross. In the heart of the Sierra mountains is to be found a large, rich vein of gold called the Mother lode. But the mother lode of sacrifice is the richest vein in the universe.

"We find it true in the physical world that life comes of death. Before we could have soil for the wheat, or stone for the sculpture, or the great deposits of coal for human consumption we had death—vicarious sacrifice. And this grand country of ours—what would it have been had not the blood of martyrs been shed that we might today enjoy the pursuit of happiness and tranquility. Moreover, the principal of life runs through our every domestic relation. Go down on the business streets of Oakland and San Francisco tomorrow afternoon and see the thousands of men plainly overworked and slowly dying. They are no avaricious. They could live on a few hundred dollars a year. Why are they then killing themselves. It is because there are invisible strings of love running to the home; because wife and children must be given comforts and education. It is the old story of life by substitution. Again how many a wife navigates a family through the ills and pains that youth is heir to, only to find herself worn out and ready for the grave. What shadling love of self-sacrifice our homes often tell. Christ could not have saved the world if he had saved himself. Nor can we save others if we save ourselves. 'He saved others, himself he could not save.' That is the lesson which comes to us today.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH UNION

Temporary Pastor Will Be Chosen to Preside for Six Months.

The union of the two Christian Churches was ratified yesterday morning. At each church a vote was taken and it was unanimous.

Under the terms of union both Rev. Edwards Davis, pastor of Central Church and Glen W. Williams of the First Church, resign and a temporary pastor is to be chosen for the first six months of the existence of the new body. At the end of that time a permanent pastor will be selected. Necessarily, both ministers will be open to a call, and both will have their supporters.

In discussing the union, Chief of Police Lloyd, one of the leaders of the First Church and a worker for consolidation, said: "The question of the pastorate has been purposely left out of consolidation, and under agreement both pastors resign. A temporary minister to act for six months will be chosen, and then when consolidation is complete, we will choose a permanent pastor. It may be either of the two men who are now resigning and it may be neither of them. Their resignations have no strings attached and it is a straightforward proposition. We are all working earnestly for the success of the church in Oakland, and we will do our best to avoid friction."

The Remains of John N. Hopkins Found in Golden Gate Park.

The mystery regarding the disappearance of John N. Hopkins has been cleared up, because the dead body which was found in Golden Gate Park Friday last has been identified as that of the missing man. Hopkins resided with his step-daughter, Mrs. Helena Hopkins, 1310 Webster avenue, Alameda, who works in Logan's studio in this city. Hopkins was abandoned by his wife two years ago, and it is believed that the desertion was responsible for his suicide.

MR. SNOW EXPLAINS.

The Sunday School Orchestra Should Be Treated Tenderly.

W. FINE RETURNS THE LETTER.

He Wants It to Be Couched In Language That Is More Agreeable.

MADAME TREBELLI'S BOTTLES.

One of the Incidents Which Brought About the Dis-Union.

There are all kinds of stories being told of the reason for the severing of the connection between the Sunday school orchestra and the First Congregational Church. One of the leading objections to the orchestra by the trustees is that the orchestra has lost its spiritual element and accepts all kinds of people so long as they can play a musical instrument.

It is reported that at the Trebelli concert a few months ago, her managers smoked in the church and the prima donna actually drank beer before going on the stage. This is said to be undesirable at a concert given by a Sunday school orchestra.

William A. Fine, manager of the orchestra, has returned the letter of dismissal to the trustees with a request that it be couched in more dignified language.

"I was not present at the meeting at which the orchestra was discussed," said President R. W. Snow of the board of trustee of the First Congregational Church tonight, "so the letter was not signed by me at that time. It was presented to me the next day with the signature of the secretary of the meeting. As it was not couched in the terms I thought ought to be used to a body of young people that had held such harmonious relations with us for so long, I refused to sign it. I thought the secretary's name was sufficient.

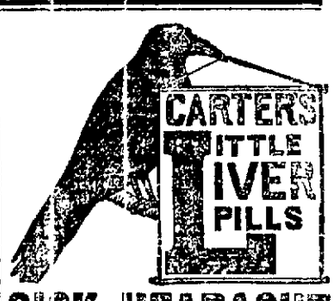

"The communication had three divisions in it, and shorn of all details, they were these: First—That the orchestra drop the name of the First Congregational Sunday school. Second—That their playing in the Sunday school be dispensed with. Third—That as they were no longer the Sunday school orchestra under arrangements, they should not expect the privileges they had enjoyed in the past. Now, if this has been conveyed to them in the proper spirit, there would never have been a word of trouble, for both Mr Fine and Mr. McCoy have been planning for this very thing themselves, as it was the wish of the meeting or not I do not know, couched it in such language that the boys did not know whether they had been thrown out or what had happened to them. They naturally came to me to find out. I showed them the three points of the letter, and, telling them to forget the rest of the letter, asked them if they were satisfied with these. They replied in the affirmative and said they had contemplated such a move at their first rehearsal, a week from Tuesday night. Then they accepted it in a Christian spirit, and made a manly response to the same.

"A to the property that belongs to the orchestra. The only equity we possess is in the fact that we encouraged them and gave them the use of the house and lights to raise the money for their purchase. No individual can come in and take any of it away, but the orchestra may do with they please with it.

"It is evident that some one is jealous of the ownership of the music and instruments. I don't believe that there would ever have been a word about this affair if it was not owing to a jealous disposition being shown by some one. This always leads to trouble.

"Little things, one after another, have been stored up by the deacons for twelve long years, and now they have acted. They are not to blame and everything will settle down as of old. While I am in charge of the church at least until I have different instructions from the board of trustees, the orchestra will meet for rehearsals and give their concerts in the church as of old, and I told the boys so."

The orchestra will hold a business meeting in a few days, and will choose a new name and try to live down the many unpleasantnesses connected with the Sunday school orchestra.

DETAILS OF THE KILLING OF CASTILLO

The Assassin Golli Was An Italian Anarchist Who Had Been Imprisoned.

GLAD HE DID HIS DUTY.

All Christendom Is Shocked at the Cold-Blooded Crime.

PART OF A CONSPIRACY.

Shot the Spanish Premier by the Side of His Wife.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

MADRID, Aug. 9.—The assassination of the Prime Minister of Spain, Senor Canovas del Castillo, who was shot and killed by an Italian anarchist, whose name is believed to be Michael Eugene Golli, at the baths of Santa Agueda yesterday afternoon was undoubtedly cold-bloodedly premeditated.

Golli deliberately watched for an opportunity to kill the Spanish statesman and he only fired when he had no chance of missing. In fact, the assassin, who was arrested almost immediately after the Premier fell dead at the feet of his wife, has declared as much to the examining magistrate.

The Prime Minister lingered for some time in agony and passed away with a cry of "long live Spain." Further details of the assassination show that Senor Canovas del Castillo and his wife were present yesterday morning at the celebration of mass in the chapel attached to the baths. After mass the Premier was reading and conversing with some reporters when the assassin approached and fired three shots at him with a revolver, hitting him in the forehead, chest and left ear. The wounded man fell to the ground crying "Assassin, long live Spain."

The Premier was carried to his room and expired at 1:30 P. M., after extreme unction had been administered him by a priest of the Dominican order.

The murderer, who was immediately seized by people in the vicinity, was severely handled and must have been killed had it not been for the protection of the civil guards. The prisoner, who declared he had killed the Premier "in the accomplishment of a just vengeance," gave the name of Rinaldi and claimed that the deed was the outcome of an extensive anarchist conspiracy. Later, however, the assassin confessed that his real name was Michael Angeline Golli, that he was 26 years of age, a native of Boggi, near Naples, and that he left Italy and came to Spain in 1896. After reaching Spain, Golli, according to his confession, resided at Barcelona and participated in the doings of the various anarchist societies of that place and vicinity.

After sojurning at Barcelona for some time, Golli visited France and Belgium and returned to Spain in July last. After his return, the anarchists seemed to have completed the plans for the assassination of the Prime Minister. He left Madrid for Santa Agueda at the same time as Senor Canovas del Castillo and awaited an opportunity to assassinate the statesman.

In appearance Golli is of medium height, wears a full beard and spectacles, and his demeanor is that of a quiet, law-abiding citizen. He says he is satisfied with having "done his duty," and asserts that he had no personal grudge against the Premier and was merely obeying orders received from his superiors in the secret society to which he belonged. He frankly professes anarchist doctrine, says he was sentenced in 1895 to eighteen months' imprisonment in the jail at Lucera, Italy, and claims that he escaped from there to Marseilles from which port he made his way to Barcelona.

Senora Canovas, wife of the Premier, who was but a short distance from her husband when the crime was committed, rushed to his side upon hearing the shots. As the Premier lay dying on the ground, she bitterly reproached the murderer for his crime. Golli, in reply, to the agonizing words of the distracted wife, said: "I respect you, because you are an honorable lady, but I have done my duty and I am now easy in mind, for I have avenged my friends and brothers of Montjuices."

Montjuices is the fortress of Barcelona outside of which the anarchists who have been sentenced to death for recent outrages have been executed by being shot in the back. The anarchists recently executed outside Montjuices were the last batch of the friends who were guilty of throwing a bomb on June 7, 1896, into a religious procession about to enter the church of Santa Maria de Lamar, upon the occasion of the Corpus Christi celebration. Twelve persons were instantly killed and about fifty others, several of whom since died of their wounds, were wounded.

For this crime twenty-six anarchists were sentenced to death and many of them were executed. The condemned men invariably shouted "long live anarchy" just btore the orders to fire were given.

The Spanish newspapers express great indignation at Golli's crime. Even the journals that have republican leanings praise the service of the deceased statesman. The Imparcial says:

"Yesterday will prove a black day for Spain. The crime will centuple the indignation of society against this would-be destroyer."

A number of newspapers appear this morning bordered in black.

A post mortem examination of the remains of the Premier was made this morning prior to embalming them for transportation to this city. The funeral will be most impressive.

The indignation expressed at the crime is shared by all parties in politics and it is generally believed that the members of the Colonial secret societies were concerned in the outrage.

It is reported that Senor Pidal, president of the Chamber of Deputies, will be appointed president of the Council of Ministers in succession to the late Premier at the expiration of the official nine days' mourning. The Ministers for the present will meet in council daily.

Golli developed in the examination before the magistrate today that he succeeded in firing two shots at the people who arrested him before he was overpowered.

The assassin calls himself a "revolutionary anarchist."

Senor Silvelva, the leader of the Dissident Conservatives, has followed the example of Senor Sagasta, the Liberal leader, and Marshal Martinez de Campos, in tendering their condolences to the government while placing their services at the disposal of the Ministers.

The Cabinet sat until 2 o'clock this morning and decided to publish in the official Gazette today, which will appear with a black border, the appointment of Lieutenant-General Don Marcolo de Azcarraga, the Minister for War, as Premier in the interim.

Senor Sagasta has postponed his projected visit to this city.

In anticipation of possible disturbances at Barcelona, the police force of that city has been reinforced.

Later in the day it was announced that highest military honors will be accorded to the deceased at his funeral. The court will, however, not return here from San Sebanstian, the summer residence, to attend the funeral ceremonies. The Queen Regent will be represented at the funeral by the Duke of Soto.

The remains will be brought here on Tuesday. An individual who was heard to express sympathy with the assassin of the Premier and with his crime has been arrested.

The newspapers of this city in commenting on the crime say that the anarchists have no country, and it is dreadful to contemplate that the last two murders of eminent men, that of President Carnot of France and of Premier Canovas del Castillo, were the work of Italians.

CUBANS HAD NO HAND IN THE DEED.

But the Revolution Will Be Benefitted by the Crime.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—A special to the World from Turner's, N. Y., says:

Estrada Palma, who is at the head of the Cuban junta in this country, in an interview commented upon the assassination of Canovas as follows:

"While I hve no sympathy with the assassin, I cannot help but feel that the action was one of retribution. Canovas more than Weyler has been responsible for the cruelties practiced by the Spanish troops in Cuba. It was by his ormurdered and wronged. He deserved no better fate.

"His death will be to Cuba's benefit, for it complicates political affairs in Spain. As the leader of the majority, he was sponsor for Weyler. His great rival is Silvela, the leader of the conservative minority. Should the Queen regent choose to continue the conservatives in power, Silvela will be premier and that would mean that Weyler would be succeeded by General Polavieja, who is now in the Phillipine Islands, and belongs to the Weyler school of warfare.

"It is true that Silvela recently suggeste dthat Cuba be given autonomy, but he cannot maintain that position as a conservative leader. The liberals under Sagasta would indeed grant us autonomy, but we will accept nothing less than absolute independence. For that we have sacrificed everything. In any case, the war must continue, and as long as it continues under Spanish methods, the sympathy of the world will be with us. In the meantime, the political confusion in Spain cannot but give us an advantage.

"It should be distinctly understood that the assassination of Canovas is not the work of the Cuban party. We do not resort to such methods. The anarchists of Spain are for the most part in the northern part of the country, and they are intimately connected with the anarchists of France. They had long threatened Canovas, who caused many of them to be executed. Only a few days ago, several anarchists were executed in Barcelona and I suppose the assassination was the outcome. I do not think the killing of Canovas was due at all to any question of policy, but merely as a vague outbreak on the part of some member of a dangerous body of men. We Cubans have no sympathy with such an act.

"As a man, I deplore such misfortune, but as a Cuban I cannot help but feel that I am benefitted by it."

NO MONEY FOR MINERS

Those Who Quit Work Are Not Included in the Pay-Roll.

STRIKERS ARE NOW HUNGRY.

A Man Who Worked Is Badly Beaten and His Wheel Smashed.

A PROFANE AGITATOR OUSTED

He Spoke in Four Languages but Was Driven From the Camp.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 9.—All the miners of the New York and Cleveland Gas Coal Company who are still at work were paid today, but those who struck did not receive any money, the company insisting upon the terms of the contract by which the men agree to forfeit all the reserve in case they quit work.

All miners who can give a reasonable excuse for attending any of the meetings will be paid. The company has the names of all the men who have been at these meetings and took part in any of the demonstrations. Unless they can give a satisfactory explanation they will get no money. The strikers say the men have promised to quit work as soon as they get their pay, but Superintendent Samuel Dearmit says the strikers will not take a man out of the Plum Creek mine except twenty-nine who will be discharged.

Owing to the carelessness of the guard about the Sandy Creek mine, forty men went into the mine at 5 o'clock this morning and are now at work. Last week there were but three men at work and only three cars of coal were mined.

Some of the details for the march on the mines in the Westmoreland county and Central Pennsylvania have been arranged. It will probably be made Tuesday, but no later than Wednesday. It is expected to take a small army of men from the Pittsburg district and march to the mines that are in operation. Several brass bands have been engaged, and it is hoped to make a successful campaign.

Word was received last night that many of the men at work were anxious for the appearance of the marchers, as it will give them a subterfuge for quitting work. Captain Miller said that as far as the New York and Cleveland miners are concerned the situation was very gratifying. He intimated that the mines would not be neglected on account of the campaign started in Westmoreland county. He said there would be enough men left at the three mines to guard them and to see to it that they are kept idle.

N. O. Waski, the Connellsville agitator, who addressed the meeting last night in four languages, was expelled from the camp and ordered to stay away for using profane language in his speech.

William Briscal, a day man at Plum Creek, was riding his bicycle last night when he was assaulted by four of the strikers and badly injured. His wheel was broken and he will be laid up for several weeks.

The strike is beginning to cause hunger among the miners' families along the Wheeling division and in the Panhandle district. At the mines where company stores have been in operatio nthe destitution is more marked. In most instances the stores were closed up shortly after the strike began, and the miners have no places now where their credit is good. The male members of the families are living better in the camps than the women and children who are at home.

The application for an injunction to restrain the miners from congregating near the mines of the New York and Cleveland Gas Coal Company, which was to have been filed in the United States Court today on behalf of the non-resident stockholders of the company, had not been presented to the court up to the adjournment at noon.

Judge Acheson has gone to his home in Washington county, and it is not likely that the bill will now be filed before tomorrow.

RUN DOWN BY A CARRIAGE.

Old Man Given Seriously Injured on Broadway This Morning.

While crossing Broadway this morning on Twelfth street, Mr. Given of Thirteenth and Alice streets was run down by a carriage.

Mr. Given, who is 54 years old, did not see the carriage on account of an electric car that was standing at the crossing, and the coachman of the carriage did not see the old man until Mr. Given had been struck.

The carriage belongs to Mrs. M. W. Kates.

The injured man was removed to the home of Dr. E. H. Woolsey, where it was found upon examination that Mr. Given had sustained a fracture of the neck of the thigh bone, besides a number of bruises.

Owing to the patient's age, his injuries will probably go hard with him. He was resting comfortably this afternoon.

PRINTING COMMITTEE REPORTS

Supervisors Transact Routine Business and Pass Bills.

The Board of Supervisors met this morning and opened proceedings as usual with the relief of a few indigents.

W. S. Santos of Centerville and Antonio Leo of Alvarado applied for permits to obtain liquor licenses, and their bonds were approved.

Expert Davis reported that the Supreme Court had declared the Clark road law to be unconstitutional, and asked that the Board take steps to pay some bills that had been assigned to him. The necessary resolution was passed and the bills will be paid under the old law.

T. C. Nielsen of Fruitvale, Wm. Grassin of Decoto, Leon Faure of Fruitvale, and Charles D. Kernison of Sunol were granted permits to sell liquors.

The chairman of the Building Committee was instructed to send a blue print of the annex to the Receiving Hospital to the secretary of the State Commission of Lunacy.

Chairman Roeth of the Printing Committee was granted another week to present a report on schedule printing.

Mr. Church said at the present time the majority of inmates at the County infirmary are decrepit old women and additional help is necessary. The matron is in need of help and it was suggested that the Superintendent be granted permission to spend $10 per month for additional help as he sees fit.

Mr. Mitchell said that he thought an assistant would be better than a little help.

Mr. Roeth thought that the necessary help could not be obtained for $10 a month and moved that the matter be referred to the Hospital Committee with power to act, and this course was adopted.

Mrs. Wright, a widow, 71 years old, came before the Board and asked for assistance, and her case was referred to Mr. Church.

Mr. Wells reported that a bridge at Sunol is in need of repair and needs fixing at once. As it was shown that the work will cost less than $300, Mr. Church moved that Mr. Wells be instructed to go ahead with the work, and the motion prevailed.

The Board then took a short recess till the Finance Committee could prepare some bills for passage.

The Printing Committee presented the following report:

"Your Committee on Printing beg leave to report that they have considered the matter of allowing additional compensation to the Tribune Publishing Company for printing the delinquent tax list.

"That the same has been published five times, as provided by law.

"That the provisions of law require that each delinquent taxpayer must pay into the County Treasury for publishing the delinquent tax list the sum of 50 cents per name and description.

"That the sum allowed for publishing each name and description by this Board on the 1st day of June, 1897, was the sum of 22½ cents.

"That this amount was voted under a misapprehension of the facts in that it was presumed by certain members of this Board that it was for but one publication.

"That the amount heretofore allowed by this Board is very low compared with the prices paid in adjoining counties.

"That in the judgment of your committee an allowance of 3½ cents additional for each of the last three publications of name and description, or a total of 32½ cents per name and description for the four publications would not be unreasonable, but would be a fair compensation for such work, and your committee recommend such additional allowance.

"CHARLES ROETH.
"JOHN MITCHELL."

After the reading of the report the following resolution was adopted:

"Whereas, The provisions of law make it necessary to have the delinquent tax list of this county published four times; and

"Whereas, The same has been published in the Oakland Tribune four times, as required by law; and

"Whereas, This Board, on the 1st day of June, 1897, fixed the compensation for such entire publication at the sum of 22½ cents per name and description;

"Whereas, At the same time prices were fixed, certain members of this Board voted under a misapprehension of the facts in that they believed that the allowance was for one publication, and not for four; and

"Whereas, The prices fixed in adjoining counties are much in excess of the prices fixed by this Board; and

"Whereas, It is deemed by this Board not unreasonable, but just and fair, to allow an increased rate for such publication;

"Now therefore be it Resolved, That an additional allowance of 10 cents per name and description (or 3½ cents per name and description for each of the last three publications in addition to the amount already allowed) be allowed for the publication of such delinquent tax list, thus making the entire allowance for such publications 32½ cents per name and description."

FITZ IS THINKING.

The Great Pugs May Yet Meet Again in the Fistic Arena.

A CARNIVAL IN NEVADA.

Sharkey and Maher to Fight for Ten Thousand Dollars.

EVERYTHING TO A FINISH.

Carson and Reno Both Bidding for W. A. Brady's Big Attraction.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

RENO, Nev., Aug. 9.—Al Ellinghouse came up from the West this morning in the interest of W. A. Brady of New York, to arrange for a pugilistic carnival to take place during fair week. Mr. Ellinghouse went with Sheriff McInnis this afternoon to look at the old prison walls with a view of utilizing them as an arena in which to hold the carnival. He found them adapted to the purpose, and a seating capacity can easily be arranged for 20,000 people. He says that if he succeeds in making satisfactory arrangements Mr. Brady will pull off a finish fight between Maher and Sharkey, for which Mr. Brady has offered a purse of $10,000; and also one between Creedon and Kid McCoy. He will also match Tommy Ryan against the winner of the Green-Walcott fight that takes place in San Francisco August 27th. Al Gumphill of England and George Dixon are among the possible attractions.

Dan Sullivan and Jimmy Barry are also on Mr. Brady's card for the week of sport. Kid Lavigne and some good crackajack in his class will undoubtedly be among the attractions.

Last, but by no means least, another fight between Robert Fitzsimmons and J. J. Corbett is among the possibilities. At all events, Mr. Brady, who hopes to get up another go between the world's champion and ex-champion, to settle the dispute as to whether Fitz struck a foul blow on that memorable 17th of March or not.

Mr. Brady has already offered big inducements to Fitzsimmons and Jim to come together again. They are considering Mr. Brady's proposition. Corbett is understood to be only too anxious to try the red headed champion again, and Fitz is "thinking."

Every fight will be to a finish, and Mr. Ellinghouse says it will be the most attractive week's pugilistic carnival ever put on in this or any other State. He will make Reno bid against Carson, and says the successful one will have to make arrangements for entertaining at least 20,000 people for a week.

Reno is very much excited over the proposition, and Mr. Ellinghouse will probably know more in a day or two than he does today.

Mr. Ellinghouse goes to Carson in the morning to pay his respects to Governor Sadler.

As near as we could understand from talking with Mr. Ellinghouse, Carson is very much elated at the prospect of a week's fistic sport taking place in that city; but it is by no means certain that Carson will be selected. Mr. Ellinghouse had a talk with General Powning in San Francisco, and the two are working together with the view of pulling off the fight in Reno during the State Fair.

SHE IS A MURDERESS

Charles Ladue Dies From Shots Fired by Clara Fallmer.

NO ANTE-MORTEM STATEMENT.

Believed He Would Recover and Refused to Tell His Story.

THE GIRL NOW GETTING WELL.

Belief That She Will Attempt to Again End Her Life.

Charles Ladue, the victim of Clara Fallmer's shooting died this morning at his home in Alameda. The girl will now be held to answer to the charge of murder.

The shooting occurred a week ago tonight. Ladue who was the girl's lover, threatened to discard her. During the ensuing quarrel, the girl drew a pistol and aimed at Ladue's heart, fired. As he fell to the sidewalk another shot rang out and the girl, wounded by her own hand sank beside the prostrate form of her lover.

The bullet that killed Ladue entered his breast near the heart. For a week he has suffered untold agonies, until partial paralysis deadened his suffering.

Ladue's death was a frightful one and during his last hours, he suffered excruciatingly. Doctors Keyes and Lubbock performed an operation late yesterday afternoon and locate the bullet. It was pressing against the spinal paralysis.

After the operation, an officer called on Ladue and asked what he had to say concerning the shooting. Ladue was suffering frightfully and could with difficulty speak.

"I told Clara that I wanted to have nothing more to do with her," he gasped, "and then she shot me."

This is the only statement that Ladue has made even semi-officially. His mother may know more of the particulars but she has refused again and again to say anything in regard to the matter.

Ladue did not give up hope of final recovery until near the end. He said again and again that he thought he was recovering and absolutely refused to make a statement of the shooting.

Deputy District Attorney Lin Church went to Alameda twice to get a dying statement from Ladue. Both times, he refused admittance by the boy's mother so Ladue died with his side of the trouble leading up to the shooting untold.

Ladue lingered until 5:30 A. M. this morning when he died. He had grown very weak the evening before but his wonderful vitality pulled him through the long hours of the night.

Clara Fallmer has given her version of the story which was published exclusively in The Tribune. She stated that her act was the result of momentary insanity brought on by intense anger at his avowal that he would hesert her.

The girl declared that Ladue had listened to idle gossip which said that she had circulated stories concerning Mrs. Ladue. The boy naturally resented the imputation of any faults in his mother and the lovers had a bitter quarrel which ended fatally for one.

Clara Fallmer is recovering and will soon be able to be out. She is still ignorant of her lover's death and believes that he too, is recovering.

The sheriff has decided to delay the issuance of a warrant for the girl's arrest until after the inquest over Ladue's remains. The inquest will be held this evening.

In the meantime Steward Tobin of the Receiving Hospital has been instructed to keep a close watch on the girl and to permit no one to see her. Every effort will be made to guard against her escape or any attempt by her to commit suicide which the Steward feels she will try to do when she hears of Ladue's death.

BORE FALSE WITNESS

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Aug. 7.—Professor Henry W. Elliott read today the interview in New York with John W. Foster, the Commissioner sent by President McKinley to England to confer with Lord Salisbury relative to the Behring Sea matter and replied hotly to Foster's intimation regarding the animus which actuated Elliott to write his two recent letters.

He said: "So, John W. Foster has nothing to say in answer to my direct charge of his telling the President an untruth about myself? Well, perhaps, that is the best thing for him to do. I happen to have in my possesion the black and white evidence that he has violated the Ninth Commandment. He has 'borne false witness against his neighbor.' Then when I call attention to this fact, he talks vaguely about my 'animus' and my 'status.'

"The American people have had a glut of this absurd tom-foolery over the fur seals and the prospect of having it strung out two or three years longer under the lead of this incompetent man, is enough to sicken them. I predict that they will not stand the shame and imposition.

"I have always been under the impression, and am still convinced, that a man convicted of bearing false witness against his neighbor is not a fit man for association within the private or official life of American citizens.

"There is more under this than I can or desire to mention at the present moment. This same amiable Mr. Hamlin, who is now associated with Foster, said to me in 1891 that they, (the Foster Association) told me 'you had sold your report to the British, but, my dear Mr. Elliott, you know that we have never believed it.' I intend to get the proof of this action on the part of Foster and his associates and then I shall add another indictment disqualifying him from running the State Department so as to discredit and injure American interests and defame American citizens."

GERMANY TO SHINE AT THE PARIS SHOW.

An Effort to Conciliate the People Who Live Beyond the Rhine.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: For the purpose of displaying her wares to the world and of benefiting her commerce thereby, the German Government has already in course of preparation an exhibit which will be made at the Paris Exposition in 1900 and which is expected to surpass anything of the kind ever attempted by any nation. So reports Consul Frank Mason, stationed at Frankfort, Germany, in his annual report of the trade relations of the German Empire, which reached the State Department today.

"Notwithstanding all historical differences and resentments," he says, "the economic interests of the two countries are after all very closely allied, and it seems to be the imperial policy to conciliate France by all legitimate means. Germany holds the second place in the list of countries in respect to direct trade with France."

FIGURES REGARDING THE APPLE CROP.

California's Yield Will Be of the Usual Maximum Order.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 7.—The National Apple Shippers' Association furnishes a most interesting report today. The yield for the crop year of 1897, based on an average of 100 as a full crop, made up to August 1st, is as follows: Canada, 40 per cent; New England States, 20; New York State, 25; Pennsylvania, 50; Maryland, 60; Virginia, 70; West Virginia, 30; Kentucky, 60; Ohio, 30; Indiana, 65; Michigan, 30; Illinois, 90; Iowa, 95; Missouri, 50; Kansas, 75; Arkansas, 90; Tennessee, 70; Colorado, 100; California, 100; Oregon, 100.

The above figures show a considerable falling off in the East, while in the West, particularly Illinois, Iowa, Missouri and Kansas show a decided increase, both as to per cent of crop and a largely increased acreage in bearing. The 1897 crop will be considerably below that of last year, but about equal to the average crop for the United States.

WHEAT MARKET IS SEE-SAWING

Eastern Advices Bring a Bearish Feeling Across the Bay.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 7.—The wheat market is playing a game of see-saw; today's Easter nadvices show a bearish feeling, and local speculative values are also lower; spot remains unchanged, though not as firm as it was. Not much call for barley today; feed continues scarce and reports from the interior show that the crop of feed will be quite short; brewing is more plentiful though firmly held at the quotations.

Beyond an advance for oil cake meal, there are no changes in feed and mill stuffs today. Hay receipts are heavier.

Sweet potatoes are more plentiful and are lower. String beans are higher and quite scarce. Tomatoes, both river and bay, are weaker. Potatoes are easier; receipts are more liberal and the demand has fallen off somewhat.

Apples move very slowly; choice stock is weaker. Strawberries did a trifle better. Grapes, particularly black, are in larger supply and are lower. Pears are a trifle easier today. Isabella grapes are worth $1.25 per crate.

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—In the wheat market this morning there was an opening break of about a cent a bushel on the weakness at Liverpool, followed by a full recovery on the announcement that Paris markets were decidedly higher. This, in turn, was succeeded by a sharp break, prices sinking to the lowest figures of the day, the decline being accelerated by some liquidation and a general cleaning up of accounts for Sunday.

The exports during the week have been enormous ,the figures showing about 1,000,000 bushels increase over the previous week. In the interior receipts at the same time have shown a moderate increase. There was a less active export demand today, shippers taking about 200,000 bushels in all. The range of September was from 83⅝ to 84, closing at 83⅛. On the curb the market was weaker, selling off to 82⅝ with a slight rally toward 1 o'clock to 83 1-16.

THE STOCK MARKET TAKES A BIG JUMP.

A Sensational Rumor of a Sale Causes a Flurry.

The Market Closes With a Very Buoyant Feeling in Some Shares.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—Money on call, easy at 1 and 1½ per cent. Prime mercantile paper, 3½ and 4; sterling exchange weak with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.86¼ and ½ for demand and $4.84¾ and $4.85 for sixty days; posted rates, $4.85½ and $4.87 and $4.88; commercial bills, $4.84½. Silver certificates quotation lower; bar silver, 56⅝; Mexican dollars, 43¼.

The price of Manhattan showed a sensational jump at the opening of the stock market with running sales of 1,000 shares at $1.02½ to $1.05 and subsequently rising to $1.08 as against 99¼ at last night's close. Various stories of a corner in the stock and of an offer from surface railroad interests to purchase the property were the cause. The stock quickly reached to $1.05. The market showed advances all around, London having changed front and advanced its prices for Americans.

Illinois Central moved up three points to $1.10, and the other active railroad shares made advances.

The more active shares felt the effects of the rapid advance and receded sharp fractions on liberal realizing sales by the traders. Business was in large volume with a steadier tone apparent in the railway list at the expiration of the first hour.

The trading in the last hour was animated. The anthracite group displayed a rising tendency in the wheat market. The closing was very buoyant at the top prices for the day and the week. Total sales, 329,200 shares.

ORE SHOVELERS ARE ON A STRIKE.

They Want More Gang Bosses and Less Boss Scalings.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

FAIRPORT, Aug. 7.—The iron-ore shovelers are on a strike. The laborers demand one gang boss to each gang, the gang boss to handle the line, to dump the buckets, and to draw one man's pay. They demand to be paid from the office by envelope instead of the boss dividing the money, taking a certain share from each man's pay and running from two to seven gangs and doing no work.

The men say they do not care to support bosses this way. If the company wants them, let them pay them. The men refuse to work and the militia has been called out. The troops have just arrived from Painesville.

Important for Liquor Dealers.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Aug. 7.—Judge Simonton of the United States Court filed his decision today defining an original package and thereby settling a disputed feature of the dispensary law.

The court holds that the original package is the form in which the liquor is delivered to the initial carrier at the point of shipment. If a box of liquor is imported, the whole box must be sold and not a single bottle from the box.

The decision will require all dealers to import liquor in single packages.

A HUMAN BODY CONSUMED BY POTASH

Theory in a Murder Case Supported by Actual Facts.

The Proof Will Be Used Against a Wealthy Wife Murderer.

CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—The experiment of destroying a human body by the use of crude potash was successfully carried out today. The body was destroyed with the exception of a few small splinters of bone, in two hours. Of the fleshy substance, only a small quantity of fluid, about the consistency of molasses, remained.

The experiment was made under orders of the prosecution in the case of Adolph Luetgert, the rich sausage manufacturer, who is charged with murdering his wife and disposing of her body in the vats at his factory. The theory of the prosecution was that Luetgert placed the body of his wife in a solution of crude potash and cold water, raised the solution to a boiling heat and destroyed all traces of his alleged crime.

A few small bones were said to have been found in a vat in the factory. The State has wound a complete web of circumstantial evidence about the sausage-maker, but the fact that a body could be destroyed thus has been disputed. Today's test settles that point beyond a doubt. The attorneys for the State believe the last link in the chain of circumstances has been found to convict Luetgert of his alleged crime.

In his youth, he moved from Arkansas, arriving at his majority he went to Morocco. There, he was arrested in connection with a bank swindle by a telegraph operator and a bogus telegram. His mother got him out of the scrape. Silberg was next heard of at Rochester, New York. He ingratiated himself into the best society in that city and married into a wealthy family. He took his bride to San Francisco and had not been there long before, it is alleged, he committed a number of clever forgeries. He disappeared and had not been heard of here until he turned up in a German prison.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

Liebke, who created a sensation here last night, by attempting, it is alleged, to assault Miss Amelia Bayless of St. Louis, but formerly of this city, was arrested at the Galt House this morning and presented in court on a charge of detaining a woman against her will. The undersigned, after seven years' suffering, without being able to obtain any relief, resolved to see Dr. Wong, but I did not obtain any help. I then determined to see Dr. Tom She Bin, and in three months I was completely cured. I commenced feeling better soon after commencing his treatment, and I was all cured.

MRS. JENNIE SAUNFERS,
1016 West 7th st., Los Angeles, Cal.

This is to certify that Dr. Tom She Bin has cured me of that dreadful disease known as heart disease, and also of weak lungs. I do make this deposition for the especial benefit of those suffering similar ailments. I must say that I was treated by the best doctor in Chicago, and after I lost all hopes I concluded to come to San Francisco for a change of climate, and immediately I heard of the wonderful cures of Dr. Tom She Bin, so I consulted him, with such good luck that after one month and a half from the time he started to treat my case I felt entirely well.

MRS. E. FRENCK,
409 Thomas Street, Chicago, Ill.

I, the undersigned, do recommend Dr. Tom She Bin as one of the best doctors to cure rheumatism, having been suffering for three years, and also been under the treatment of six skillful doctors for four months without feeling any relief. I determined to set myself under the care of Dr. Tom She Bin, who gave me immediate relief, and in the course of five weeks I was enjoying good health.

PANFILO MURILLO,
Pomona, California.

My son, nine years of age, utterly prostrated with typhoid fever for six weeks, he was under the explicit care of hospital doctors, but without avail. All his body was declared incurable. I heard the name of Doctor Tom She Bin, and at once was induced to see him, and I left my son to his absolute care. Fifteen days after my son was able to play around the yard I fully believe Doctor Tom She Bin saved my son's life.

CARRIE CONTRERAS,
830 Mission Road, Los Angeles, Cal.

San Francisco, February 14th, 1897.
The undersigned does hereby recommend Dr. Tom She Bin as the only competent doctor. He has cured me entirely from throat disease, which many doctors declared incurable. J. A. OWENS,
Euclid Block, N. Los Angeles, Cal.

San Francisco, January 31st, 1897.
I, John A. Fain, do hereby certify that I suffered with piles for over twelve years. Dr. Tom She Bin cured me in very short time.

San Francisco, February 26th 1897
I have been suffering under the most dreadful disease for two years past and lost all hopes of recovering, being unable to move for four months. At last I concluded to take Dr. Tom She Bin's Wonderful Chinese herbs, and in six weeks after my health was completely restored.

J. E. MEDRAN,
756 Workmain St., East Los Angeles, Cal.

Montenzon, Cal., March 1st, 1897.
I write this letter for the benefit of any one who may be in trouble, as I have been. About fourteen years ago I was taken sick. The doctors pronounced it ulceration of the stomach and said it would end in a cancer.

At times I would vomit a black and bloody looking matter, also a great deal of white mucus. The disease would make me very nervous and despondent. At different times during my ailment I would get some relief for a few months, then it would come back as bad or worse than ever. I doctored with several as good doctors as I could find in the East and also here in California, but none of them effected a cure.

I was advised to consult Dr. Tom She Bin, which I did about the 1st of October, 1892.

He said my trouble was the cancer of the stomach. I commenced taking his medicine immediately. For the first three or four months there seemed to be but a very little change. After that time I improved very fast and am now able to do quite a good day's work. I have every reason to believe he has effected a permanent cure for me. J. L. CARPENTER.

San Francisco, March 2, 1897.
I saw Dr. Tom She Bin's advertisement. I first come up to 615 Kearny street to feel my pulse. He tell me what trouble, I had, was true. I had a pain over my body, and chilly. I put my case to him; first week I take Chinese Herb; one week I was great deal better. I been sick for six years. I go to white physician, cannot do me any good. I take Dr. Tom She Bin's Herbs six week; I was all well. I was cured about one year and never pain again.

MRS. J. SANGALL,
17 Lafayette Place, between Green and Union, Kearny and Dupont, San Francisco, Cal.

San Francisco, March 4th, 1897.
By these presents I do hereby recommend Dr. Tom She Bin as a successful doctor to cure the dreadful disease styled consumption, so common among all classes. He has restored my health in the short term of twenty days, for the trifling amount of $2.50 per day.

Signed, L. C. FLORES,
506 Upper Main St., Los Angeles, Cal.

San Francisco, March 5, 1897.

San Francisco, March 6, 1897.
I had gravel and kidney trouble four years. My friends sent me to Dr. Tom She Bin. He felt my pulse, and he told me what trouble I had. I put my case in his hands, and took herbs twice a day. In four weeks my troubles were all cured. Now my flesh is all good. The last three or four years I went to white doctors, but never did me any good. Now I have got well and am in good health.

JENS J. JENSEN,
213½ Clara St., San Francisco, Cal.

Geo. Osgoodby, author of the world-famous Murchison letter to Lord Sackville West, the English Embassador, in 1888, writes concerning Dr. Tom She Bin, now selling Chinese Teas and Herbs at the Sanitarium, 615 Kearny street, San Francisco, Cal., and says:

Pomona, Los Angeles Co., Cal., March 7, 1897.
For the benefit of those who are suffering with chronic diseases, I will say that many years of severe suffering and futile treatment ended in Bright's disease of the kidneys, of which Dr. Tom She Bin completely cured me, after correctly and minutely describing my malady from the pulse, without asking a question. He is a medical marvel, and without a peer in his profession. Respectfully,

GEO. OSGOODBY.

San Francisco, March 13th, 1897.
I wish to give my testimony in behalf of Dr. Tom She Bin. It is about two months ago that I fell sick with influenza, being unable to procure no other help than that of domestic remedies. I fell worse and worse, until I was totally paralyzed. I was induced to consult Tom She Bin, and he, by the aid of his wonderful Chinese herbs, I felt somewhat relieved in twenty-four hours, and he agreed to treat me for the sum of two hundred dollars, and now I feel grateful to the doctor for his efforts. Very truly,

HILARIO PRECIADO,
Los Angeles, Cal.

This is to certify that Dr. Tom She Bin cured me of kidney trouble and stricture. Was sick for some time, but found no relief until I tried this doctor. He entirely cured me, and I have not been troubled since.

No wonder farmers are looking happy. The rise of 20 cents which has taken place on wheat during the past thirty days means $100,000,000 more in their pockets.

Can it be possible that General Miles has deserted? It seems impossible to get him back from Europe and his extradition cannot be attempted under our existing treaty.

Bryan's stock in trade becomes depleted as the hard times vanish. It will be noticed, too, that he is shouting his wares in much lower tones than he was a couple of months ago.

Charley Ross has been found at last He is on the Clondyke, and in addition to his being located, he will probably be sorry that his partner, Stanley, found Mrs. Ross in San Francisco and gave to her the bag of gold Charles intended for another woman.

The horrors of the plague and famine in India form an appalling chapter of the Queen's jubilee year. Julian Hawthorne says that 8,000,000 people have thus far died of starvation, and if the present conditions are maintained, the death roll will be increased to 20,000,000 before December comes around.

That Alameda county was wise to retain her game warden is being proved by the experiences of those counties where the office was left unfilled. Game and fish have been indiscriminately slaughtered, regardless of the close seasons, and no one has got any benefit out of it except the poachers and pothunters.

Bicycle scorching is being stopped in every Eastern city by the imposition of severe penalties on the offenders. A Philadelphia young man who was hauled up the other day for breaking the law in that regard, gave as his defense in court that he was in a hurry to see his girl and that under the constitution he was entitled to "the right to liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

Any one would think, by the way the editor of the Santa Mana Graphic writes, that a few thousand subscribers more or less, form no object to him. This is his advice to his patrons about the Clondyke: "Dawson is the business center and there is work all winter, and plenty of it. We say to able-bodied men, 'Go, and God bless you.' If you can't get a mine get a farm."

Murderers are expensive luxuries to a community. Durrant must have already cost San Francisco $20,000 or $25,000, for although this sum sounds large at first, when the time of the judges, prosecuting officers, detectives, stenographers, etc., is considered, it will soon be seen where the money lies. Even the speedy forms of justice in vogue in Australia could not dispose of Butler for less than $30,000, though most of that bill was, of course, footed up by the chase to America.

Senator Perkins has put an effectual damper on the hopes of Dr. McLean and those other agitators who have been endeavoring to disrupt the improvement of Oakland harbor. "The delegation from a State may be able to get an appropriation," he says, "but the delegation cannot say how it shall be expended. That is left to a corps of experienced and educated government engineers, and they alone can decide such a matter." As the engineers are unanimous in declaring that the work of dredging the harbor must be done first, nothing else need be said on the subject.

McKinley's stand on civil service is being generally commended all over the country, save by a few of the ultra-rabid Democratic organs. The order he recently issued has effectually routed the professional spoils-seekers, for he comes out flat-footed for those principles that are the very essence of civil service reform. "No removal," he says, "shall be made from any position in the civil service subject to competitive examination except for just cause and upon written charges filed with the head of the department or other appointing officer, and of which the accused shall have full notice and an opportunity to make defense."

It seems as if the race prejudices in the South are impossible to stamp out. Lynching is the general way of dealing with a colored criminal and a good indication of the sentiments that prevail may be obtained from the remarks of a Georgia judge the other day, who addressed a crowd of negroes in his court room as follows: "Go to your homes and stay there. This is a white man's country and you negroes may as well understand this and keep your place." These are dangerous remarks especially from the bench, for they show an encouragement of the idea that a black man is not entitled to the same rights as a white man

THOSE FIRE ALARM BELLS.

Ex-City Attorney Johnson's advocacy of personal comfort is commendable from that standpoint, but it is very doubtful if the benefits are commensurate with the losses. He pleads for the abolishment of the present fire alarm system on the ground that the clanging of the bells jars the nerves and prohibits sleep in the particular sections where the iron-tongued warners are resounding.

Mr. Johnson is wrong in his premises when he says the bell system is antiquated. It is in vogue in most of the large cities of the country, and certainly is preferable to the discordant blasts of steam whistles, such as are given in San Francisco to announce a conflagration. As for there being no necessity to give a public alarm, it is certain that Mr. Johnson's contention in that regard will have few supporters. There is probably no announcement that creates more general interest than a fire alarm. If it occurs during the business hours of the day it gives to down-town tradespeople, shoppers and professional men the news of whether or not the fire is in the vicinity of their homes and if the alarm is given during the night, it is invaluable to a business man, who wants to know whether or not his down-town property is in danger. Furthermore, there are few people who do not display more than a passing interest as to where the fire is anyhow, so with all these and many other reasons for the maintenance of the system, there is little fear that Mr. Johnson's remonstrance will be effective, especially when it is remembered that Oakland has the credit of possessing the best fire alarm system in the West.

One queer combination has arisen as a result of the desire of the papers to secure the most notable correspondents for the Clondyke. Joaquin Miller was signed up by the Examiner but had unfortunately been previously secured by the New York World. The result is that Joaquin's letters appear simultaneously in the Examiner and the World, and the scoop that the "Monarch" gets here is discounted by the fact that the sister paper, the New York Journal, is at the same time being scooped by the World. The poet's correspondence is, of course, very interesting, but his imagination runs away with him at critical times, as witness the occasion when a couple of years ago he interviewed Evans and Contag for the Examiner and they afterwards denied that he had ever seen them.

Editor McPherson of the Santa Cruz Sentinel is a "natural-born" diplomat. After commenting on the passage of the high-hat ordinance in Oakland, he indicates that such a measure is unnecessary in his town, for he says "the beautiful women of Santa Cruz, those who are thoughtful of the rights and feelings of others, sit at theaters without their hats on." As the Santa Cruz women are all beautiful, or at least consider themselves so, there will be few hats worn in the theater down there from now on.

Ex-President Andrews of Brown University is taking advantage of the sympathy expressed for him because he lost his position for sticking up for silver, and the chances are that he will be a candidate against Bryan for the Presidency in 1900. Senator Teller will also be in the race.

A French chemist has a new kind of crystal that he says is harder than diamonds. If it is any harder to get than diamonds the chances are we won't see much of it around Oakland.

FASHION NOTES.

A summer girl out shopping this morning wore a dark blue lawn dress brocaded in pink carnations with shaded green leaves. The skirt was trimmed with three Swiss ruffles, each three inches wide and finished with Valenciennes edge. There were triple frills of the Swiss over the shoulders following the sleeve seam outline in the back, while in the front the frills narrowed into little ruffles as they were carried to the waist in V shape. The collar was a white stock with Swiss pleatings.

"One beauty of this gown," said the summer girl, "is that the white ruffles are all made on a feather stitched linen band, only the upper one having a shirred heading. These bands are hand run on the gown and when the trimming needs laundering it is easily removed and replaced. The gown itself is freshened by ironing on the wrong side."

Lawns, batistes and grass linens in strips alternating with Valenciennes lace insertions, repeated through the entire width, are among the new arrivals in Kansas City. The material is especially popular for waists. The short, plump woman increases her apparent stature by having her blouse cut so that the insertion runs up and down, while her slender sister affects a sloutness not her own by having the insertion bands arranged crosswise.

White aprons for little girls will be an important item in school wear this fall. The full round skirt, leaving an inch of the dress visible at the bottom, is finished with handkerchief hemstitching. Bretelles, with lace or embroidered bands, are worn over the shoulders and fastened to the waist band, both back and front. Another pretty fashion for the wee girl is the full length apron with front in one piece and the skirt fullness attained by extra widths in the back, shirred in from the low neck at the back and confined by strings set at the waist line and tied in a double bow-knot. These strings may be broadened into sashes and the apron made quite dressy by the aid of Swiss or Hamburg needle-work.

The gown pocket is a possibility again. It is inserted in the left side of the skirt under narrow ornamental tabs, which are carried down the front side seams from the waist line to a depth of twelve or fourteen inches.

A unique baby carriage just from Paris is made of rattan in swan shape The baby sits in the back of the swan and is supposed to find amusement in driving with bright ribbons drawn around the swan's neck. The wheels are silver plated, and have pneumatic tires.

Rules for a Wife.

Isabel, Lady Burton, is a character of unfailing interest. The posthumous "Romance" of her life is a mine of human interest. It begins with her young girl adoration of her captain that continued until her death, which comes speedily after his, in old age. In her "seventeen rules for a wife," she set down a certain code of action for a woman whose life was to be linked with that of a man who until forty years of age had roamed the world from Mecca to Salt Lake. Several of the seventeen rules embody minor rules, but all of them are of spirited significance. The first one is about friendship and companionship; the second about care of him when ailing; the third about making home snug and attractive to intimates and people that interest him as well as to himself. The fourth rule is for self-improvement and education; the fifth about following on journeys at an hour's notice, ready to rough it; the sixth about generosity in affection and care in personal appearance, and the seventh about promoting her husband's interests, professional, social, and personal. The ten remaining selections of advice from Isabel Burton to herself contain so much philosophy that they shall be given in full.

"Never confide your domestic affairs to your female friends.

"Hide his faults from everyone and back him up through every difficulty and trouble.

"Never permit anyone to speak disrespectfully of him before you; and if anyone does, no matter how difficult, leave the room. Never permit anyone to tell you anything about him, especially of his conduct with regard to other women. Never hurt his feelings by a rude remark or jest. Never answer when he finds fault, and never reproach him when he is in the wrong, especially when he tells you of it, nor take advantage of it when you are angry; and always keep his heart up when he has made a failure.

"Keep all disagreements for your own room, and never let others find them out.

"Never ask him not to do anything—for instance, with regard to visiting other women or anyone you particularly dislike; trust him and tell him everything, except another person's secret.

"Do not bother him with religious talk, be religious yourself and give good example, take life seriously and earnestly, pray for and procure prayers for him, and do all you can for him without his knowing it, and let all your life be something that will win mercy from God for him.

"Cultivate your own good health, spirits, and nerves, * * * to enable you to carry out your mission.

"Never open his letters nor appear inquisitive about anything he does not volunteer to tell you.

"Never interfere between him and his family; encourage their being with him, and forward everything he wishes to do for them, and treat them in every respect (as far as they will let you) as if they were your own.

"Keep everything going, and let nothing ever be at a standstill."

PLENTY OF GOLD IN PERU.

Malcolm King Says It Abounds In Indian-Infested Regions.

ALAMEDA AND PIEDMONT NOTES

A General Resume of Events In the Suburbs North and South.

BERKELEY, Aug. 9.—Malcolm G. King, civil engineer of this town, places great faith in the future of Peru as a gold mining center. King has been to Peru and believes that the gold of the Incas is still there, but the country is so full of hostile Indians that a force of armed men would have to do some brisk fighting before the mines could be reached. The Indians shoot poisoned arrows and are an extremely fierce and treacherous race. King went to Peru in 1859.

"The country was brought to my attention by a member of the company with whom I was a juror in a San Francisco court in '59," said Mr. King. "This man told me that when his party got to Tarma, a city of the Central Andes, they met one Dr. George Buckingham, an American, by whom they were told that it would be hard to get into the country, owing to the hostile Indians. They tried it, however, going to the Serro del Sal country. There, according to the story of the man I talked with, they found that there was plenty of gold, but the Indians were too hostile and too numerous. The miners were driven out of the country.

"A year later I went to Peru at the invitation of a friend who had mines there. He had to stay with his property, but gave me letters of introduction to parties in the interior. At Tarma I met Dr. Buckingham. He confirmed the story I had heard and said he had no doubt that the Serro del Sal was a rich gold country, but that it was a very risky proposition for any small company of miners to enter there. I went on further into the interior to Montauya. The stories of the dangerous natives were repeated and there is no doubt that some heavy fighting will have to be done before the country is explored. I was told some stories that would indicate the existence of remarkably rich gold finds and have no doubt that there is a good deal of truth in the tales. Some day a party will go there strong enough to oppose the Indians and their deadly poisoned arrows and then the world may hear of another rich source of gold."

The State University opens today, when entrance examinations commence. Recitations will begin Thursday afternoon for the higher classes. Tuesday, August 17th, the freshmen will be organized for instruction.

The millions of dollars that have recently been added to the revenue of the University and the prospects of new buildings which will excel all others in the world have had an exhilarating effect on the college. Various new departures have been planned. A new philosophy building is being erected, and Professor William Howison has announced that a summer school of philosophy will be held next year, which will be conducted by Professor William James of Harvard.

The new Agricultural College is nearing completion. Work is almost completed on the addition to the gymnasium. The botany building and the class room building have not yet been started. The bids for the latter were all considered too high.

The register of the University of California for the year 1896-97 was issued today. It shows the great need for the new class room building. In the colleges at Berkeley there are 898 male and 598 female students, making 1,496 in all. There are 574 male and 146 female students in the professional colleges in San Francisco and one man at the Lick Observatory, so the total number of students in the University is 2,211. This does not include those enrolled only for extension courses. The officers and faculty of the University number 346.

William Downer and Samuel Dickson freshmen of the class of 1901 at the State University, intend to pay their way through college. They have established the Students' Dairy Company with one cow as capital.

A new organization for the benefit of self-sustaining students, similar to the long-established Students' Aid Society, has been formed at the State University. It is known as the Students' Home Supply Company, and is managed by E. H. Rubottom and H. W. Hill, the two collegians who organized the Students' Transfer Company last year. Through the new organization a large number of young men have found employment and have been enabled by it to reduce their living expenses to a minimum.

At the present time there are over 200 students in the University who are working either the whole or a part of their way through college.

Rev. Dr. H. A. Ketchum, who recently resigned from the pastorate of the First Presbyterian Church of Berkeley, has accepted a call to the pulpit of the First Presbyterian Church in Salem, Oregon. He will enter upon his new field of work at the beginning of next month. His new church has a membership of 300 and is one of the leading churches of Salem.

Clarence Dickerson has been appointed business manager of the Occident, the weekly paper published by University students.

Al Lean, C. P. Nott and Everett Brown have arranged with Professor Magee to select their freshmen footballers from among the men examined by him.

DAVIS IS NAMED.

Alameda County Thinks She Is Entitled to the Governorship.

A QUIET LITTLE CAUCUS.

Mr. Davis Says Republicans Must Be of One Mind.

IS NOT YET A CANDIDATE.

Others Who Are Anxious to Succeed Governor Budd.

Yesterday morning the Examiner announced that some friends of William R. Davis had decided to put him forward as a candidate for Governor.

In the presidential election Alameda was the banner Rpeublican county, and not merely that, but she was so far to the front that there could hardly be said to be a second. She gave 5000 majority for McKinley and saved California for Republicanism and sound money. This was a good turn which deserved a liberal reward, and there is quite a general willingness to concede that when the next Republican State Convention meets, Alameda county shall be recognized in a substantial manner. She is bound to be very influential in the party assemblage because, on the basis of the McKinley vote, she will have a much larger representation of delegates than she ever had before.

A number of leading Republicans who have been discussing the matter in a general way for some time, held an informal conference Saturday afternoon. It was held in the office of Mr. H. A. Powell, in San Francisco, but only Oaklanders were present; it was only a small preliminary gathering and it was held on the other side of the bay because it happened to be more convenient for several of the gentlemen to meet there than anywhere else. It was the opinion of those present that hardly another man could be found in California so eligible as a candidate as Mr. Davis.

Mr. Davis, however, will not consent to become a candidate for the nomination unless he can be assured that he is the choice of the entire Republican party of this county.

Mr. Davis says he is not yet a candidate, and adds:

"It has been represented to me by a number of Republicans of this county that Alameda county is entitled to the Republican nominee for the head of the Republican ticket, owing to the fact that if it had not been for this county last year the State would have gone Democratic. It has also been represented to me that my name should be used in this connection. To the former representation I agree, but to the latter I have said that my name could be used only if the county unanimously desires it. I will not be the candidate of a faction or of any clique, but if it is felt that my name is representative of a harmonious party in this county and is of use to the party at large I will allow its use in connection with that office."

Lou Brown, Secretary of State, who was formerly a resident of Haywards, is also being mentioned as a candidate for the office, while General Barnes, and Tom Flint of Los Angeles are also said by their friends to be in the race.

The Democrats will probably take up Judge Maguire, though there are several others, including Phelan, Budd, and White, who may also decide to seek gubernatorial honors.

COLORED DESPERADOES BITE THE DUST.

Armed Deputies Succeed in Doing Up the Two Desperate Lightfoots.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Aug. 9.—The negro desperadoes, Allen Lightfoot and son, had a pistol fight yesterday with five officers of the law on a road which runs along the river in Coffee county. The negroes have been wanted for some time for various felonies and had defied the officers to arrest them. Five deputy sheriffs encountered them in the narrow road and a cross fire was opened at once, many shots being exchanged. The elder Lightfoot was shot through the ear and killed. The son was shot in both legs and in the shoulder. He will also die. None of the officers were seriously wounded.

May Get Life Imprisonment.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—A despatch to the Herald from Panama says:

"A despatch from the Herald's correspondent in Medellin says that Charles Radford of Alabama has been condemned to death for the murder several months ago of Charles Simonds, a wealthy merchant of California. In all probability the sentence will be commuted to life imprisonment, as capital punishment here is never exercised save in exceptional cases.

The anniversary of the battle of Boyaca, at which the Spanish yoke was practically thrown off by Colombia, Venezuela, and Ecuador, is now being celebrated. During the recent exercises several persons were injured by standing too close to the rifles of the troops, and being hit by the wadding in the blank cartridges."

A MOTHER MURDERS AN ILL-FAVORED SON.

She Could Not Bear to Look on a Face That Was Disfigured.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

QUITMAN (Ga.), Aug. 9.—A fisherman discovered the body of a six-year-old boy floating on the surface of a pond near this place, and later, identified it as the son of Mrs. Idella Powell Banks, a widow owning a farm just outside of Quitman.

The actions of the mother when notified of the discovery aroused the suspicions of the coroner and she was subsequently arrested and placed in jail. Here she was visited by a minister to whom she confessed having murdered her child. The reason she gave was that he was too ugly to permit to live and was a constant source of embarrassment to her on this account. She said that she walked by the pond and when she tried to push him in he resisted with all his feeble strength. She has broken down completely in jail, and says she wants to be hanged as soon as possible.

The child's face was disfigured by a heavy birthmark.

LOST THEIR LIVES ON A CRUISE.

The Remains of Two Young Men Picked Up in Notac Bay.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—A special to the World from Sag Harbor, N. Y., says:

"The body of Joseph Gilbert of the Gorham Manufacturing Company, New York, has been found floating in the Notac bay by the steam launch Lorna Doone. The sloop Eureka towed it to Sag Harbor, where it was identified by the young man's brother, A. S. Gilbert, a New York lawyer. Young Gilbert, who was 20 years of age, left Sag Harbor with a lad named Bartella of Perth Amboy, Wednesday morning, in a small sailing canoe. Their destination was Riverhead. Thursday, the canoe was picked up on the beach with a hole in it and the boom broken. The body of young Bartella has already been picked up at Southead, near here."

ANOTHER BICYCLE RECORD BROKEN.

A Norwood Man Lowers the Two Hundred Mile Time.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

BOSTON, Aug. 9.—Warren S. Taylor, president of the Norwood, Mass., Cycle Club, has just made a successful attempt to lower the 200-mile bicycle road record (paced) of 17 hours, 28 minutes, 38 seconds, held by J. G. Graves of Springfield, the course being between Norwood and Taunton. Taylor's elapsed time was 15 hours, 4 minutes, and his actual riding time, 12 hours, 35 minutes.

A despatch from New Bedford, Mass., announces that J. Eugene McGuinness of New Bedford made a double century from New Bedford to Webster, Mass., and returned, breaking the record of Graves by 32 minutes.

SHE MUST REMAIN OUT OF AMERICA.

The Prince of Wales' Britannia Cannot Be Brought Here.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—A great deal of interest has been excited among yachtsmen in this city by the appearance in one of the morning papers of an advertisement offering for sale the Prince of Wales' famous yacht Britannia. It has been known for a long time that the heir apparent to the British crown desired to dispose of his fast cutter. Several unsuccessful attempts have been made to sell her on the other side. The possibility of her sale here is out of the question, as recent legislation makes it virtually impossible to buy her. A bill passed by Congress and which became a law last February provides against the purchase of foreign-built vessels by Americans.

COMING AROUND THE HORN.

New York Clondykers to Sail Soon for the Gold Regions.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—The first ship sailing from New York direct to the Clondyke gold fields is advertised to leave this city about August 21st. It is to be sent by the New York and Alaskan Gold Exploring and Trading Company. The company has not yet selected its vessel, but it promises to dispatch a steamship capable of carrying safely 200 passengers and 1,500 tons of freight. It says the ship will make the voyage from New York around Cape Horn to Juneau in fifty or sixty days. More than fifty names have been listed for the voyage. Not more than 200 passengers will be allowed to embark. The cost per passenger, including birth, meals and transportation of 500 pounds of baggage direct to Juneau is to be $175.

Admitted to Harvard.

Mr. George Chase, son of Mr. Chase of the firm of Kohler & Chase will enter Harvard as a member of the incoming Freshman Class. He entered University Academy, Alameda, in August 1896, and graduated from that school in May 1897, having thereby saved a whole half year of valuable time. Mr. Chase received a few days ago official notice of his admission to Harvard. He will be an excellent representative of University Academy in the far East, and a credit to this city.

SLEEPS NEITHER NIGHT NOR DAY.

A Man in St. Louis to Whom Much Needed Rest Never Comes.

The Strange Effect of an Overdose of Quinine Years Ago.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 9.—John O. Stutte, carpenter and builder has been awake twenty-five years. His last slumber came so many years ago that he has forgotten what it is like to lie down at night and awake refreshed and rejuvenated. Sleep is an unknown quantity with Stutte. He either lies upon his bed and gazes on the stars or, if in a restless mood, takes long walks into the country, returning at daybreak to begin work in his little shop, just north of the house. His neighbors call him "The man who never sleeps." Stutte attributes his sleeplessness to a noise which continually roars in his head like a cataract. At times it sounds like the buzz and whir of wheels sawing their way through heavy timber. Again the sounds resemble escaping steam, but, at times, they mingle in a horrible deafening roar. Owing to the noises in his head Stutte does not hear readily. He says that the ringing in his ears was caused by an overdose of quinine which was administered to him in 1872. He took fifty-two grains at one dose and when he awoke next day he heard a noise in his head which has remained there ever since, keeping him awake every night and day for twenty-five years. Stutte is 70 years old. He carries his age gracefully and does not look the worse for his long siege of wakefulness.

SILENT SPECTRES FROM THE EARTH.

A Mystery Created by the Find of a Number of Skeletons.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

VALLEY, Neb., Aug. 9.—A grading company at work near here exhumed nineteen skeletons. All the bodies were in a good state of preservation, and all were evidently buried with their clothes on and without coffins. Five were females. The bodies had probably been in the ground fifteen or twenty years, but no resident of the locality can recall any burying ground located here, nor does rumor relate of anything in the past that will account for the presence of the skeletons. The bodies were covered with only a few feet of earth and were placed together in a large trench. Apparently the skeletons are those of white people.

THE MORGAN SUSPECTED.

She Is Being Watched So That Arms May Not Go Abroad.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Aug. 9.—The schooner Blanche Morgan, Captain Wasson, which was taken in charge by government officials Saturday while loading ammunition, will probably be given a clean bill of health and allowed to depart. A rumor that arms were to be shipped from this port to Cuba has apparently exerted the United States War Department, and the United States cutter Fern, since its arrival Saturday, has been seeking traces of any suspicious foreign-bound vessel. When the Morgan tied up at Miller's wharf and commenced to load ammunition, Collector Goddard, in company with officers from the Fern, boarded the boat. The statement of Captain Wasson that the ammunition was being shipped for the United States forces at Governor's Island, did not seem satisfactory, and a deputy from the custom house was put aboard until inquiries could be made.

Chilian Ministry Sustained.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—A special to the Herald from Valparaiso, Chili, says:

"The chamber of deputies has passed a vote of confidence in the ministery by a vote of 39 to 34. This action in the chamber caused considerable surprise as the cabinet has been violently attacked in the chamber time after time. A prominent conservative stated that every indication is now that the ministry will fail, owing to internal dissensions. The outlook now is that there will be no permanent ministry in Chili until the liberal parties reunite against the conservatives."

DANIEL ANDREA'S DUAL MISFORTUNE.

His Wife Dies While He Lies in the Receiving Hospital.

Last night Mrs. S. Andrea, wife of Daniel Andrea, who was injured at the Judson Iron Works Saturday last, died at her home, 1250 Center street. The deceased was 50 years of age and had been subject to apoplexy. She was found yesterday morning at her home in an unconscious condition by people who had called to inquire as to her husband's condition. She was unable to speak, but it is believed that she was shocked by the news of the injury to her husband.

Andrea is still in the Receiving Hospital, as a consequence of the amputation of his left leg, which was performed Saturday last.

Oakland Theater.

The bright farce comedy, "Mrs. Partington and her son Ike," will be given to-night at the Oakland Theatre by the Elleford Company, which will close its engagement at the Theatre this week. During the week of August 16th, the Theatre will be closed to be repainted and generally renovated.

Hurt in a Collision.

A collision occurred between a car of the East Oakland electric line and a wagon at East Fifteenth street and Fifth avenue Saturday night. The car was badly damaged and one of the passengers, Mrs. W. T. Webb, was slightly injured.

COLONEL DIMPFEL IS DETERMINED.

He Will Stop Jessie Newman and Pearl Lund's Dancing Tonight.

They Have Obtained a Permit to Kick and Now Intend to Appear.

The action of the W. C. T. U. ladies in regard to skirt dancing by little girls has aroused Colonel Dimpfel, secretary of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children. He has accordingly issued a mandate forbidding little Pearl Lund and Jessie Newman to dance at the Oakland Theatre this week.

This mandate when conveyed to the girls raised a storm of protest. The Colonel had permitted the girls to dance at Blair Park Sunday afternoons for money and now the young women could not understand the sudden pricking of the Colonel's conscience over their dancing in a theatre on week nights.

Colonel Dimpfel was firm and withstood the arguments of the children's parents and even defied a permit from the Mayor.

"Get your permits, get all the permission in the world," shouted the Colonel, "as long as you have not my permission you cannot dance in the theatre, and I'll stop you if you try."

The threat sounded final and the young girls who were really anxious to earn money by their dancing were in a quandary. They decided to appeal their case to Colonel Dimpfel's superior officer, Secretary Parnell of San Francisco.

Secretary Parnell listened to the girls' story, found that they were between fourteen and sixteen years of age, and consented to their dancing.

He read Colonel Dimpfel's letters to their parents, and characterized them as "saucy." In view of the fact that Colonel Dimpfel had given permission to the girls to dance Sunday afternoons at Blair Park, Secretary Parnell thought that he ought to let them dance in the theatre.

Colonel Dimpfel is not crushed by the ultimatum of his superior officer, in the shape of a permit for the girls to dance. He is still going to stop the performance if the girls go on the stage. The girls are determined, the Colonel is determined, and there will probably be a scene at the Oakland to-night which is not down on the bills.

THREE TIES MADE.

Remarkable Shooting at the Blue Rock Matches Yesterday Afternoon.

The Heeseman cup event was won by Captain W. H. Seaver of the Reliance Gun Club at the Club ranges yesterday afternoon. The event was not won, however, until Weaver had shot off three ties with "Sands."

At each of the three ties both men broke twenty straight birds. The fourth trial was at twenty-five "clays," Weaver breaking twenty-four and "Sands" twenty-two.

The ties were made at the regular monthly shoot of the gun club.

The results were as follows:

First event—ten targets—Score: Captain W. H. Seaver, 10, "Sands" 10, Mitchell 6, Wagner 7, Robbins 5, Stewart 7, Knight 9, Willis 4.

Second event—Twenty targets, known traps, unknown angles (Heeseman cup event). Score: Captain Seaver 19, "Sands" 19, Mitchell 15, Robbins 16, Stewart 13, Willis 10, Knight 15. In this event the ties were made between Seaver and "Sands."

Third event (merchandise shoot)—Thirty known traps, unknown angles. Score: Captain Seaver 27, "Sands" 24, eight targets out of 125 and "Sands" but thirteen out of the same number.

A BICYCLE SHIP.

The Latest Invention of Wilber, the Well Known Trick Rider.

E. G. Wilber, the trick bicycle rider, has invented a bicycle ship and he and his wife will start from East Oakland to Los Angeles this afternoon. Wilber says he can make the journey in four days.

The ship is an ordinary bicycle rigged with a sail.

Wilber has gained some fame by riding his wheel over high trestles and tight wires.

Fruit Trade Increasing.

The largest cargo of fruit yet landed on Oakland wharves in one day came in yesterday. The San Lorenzo came into the Clay street wharf with about ninety tons for the Eleventh street dealers and the Mary C landed about fifty tons at the Adams wharf for Hunt, Hatch & Co. Business was lively at both landings and there was a general clean-up at ruling prices. Besides fruit there was a considerable shipment of cantaloupes and garden produce.

Was Afraid to Die.

David Smith, an inmate of the County Infirmary, left that institution Friday with the avowed intention of committing suicide. He was followed by a keeper. Coming to Oakland the two started across the bay to San Francisco, and when opposite Goat Island, Smith walked to the rail of the ferry steamer as if to jump overboard, but at the critical moment, the old man's heart failed him, and he turned from the rail in horror. He was taken in charge by the keeper.

"The World" on Clondyke.

This is how the New York World sums up the Alaskan gold excitement:

There is probably a lot of gold in the Clondyke mines.

A great many people will get rich in working them. But a great many more will grow poor in the same undertaking.

Two or three facts may safely be taken for granted:

One is that there is not gold enough in any placer mine to disturbe the relative value of gold and other commodities.

A second is that not everybody who goes prospecting comes back rich.

A forth is that truth which Irving impressed in one of his wierdest stories, that there is more gold to be got out of that digging of the soil which produces cabbages and agricultural products than out of any other.

The World does not advise any young man to give up a fair salary in order to make his fortune in the Clondyke mines.

A Lost Art Recovered.

How any one who cannot sing a note or is bothered with throat trouble can develop a perfect voice of three octaves without a particle of strain on the throat, in three months' time. MISS LOUISA NELSON, 121 Eddy st., San Francisco.

The widow appeals to the sympathy of even the most callous-hearted. Here is a woman still in the springtime of life, deprived of the stay and support upon which she had every right to depend, and her future overshadowed by the loss of the one man in all the world upon whom she had centered her love and affection. A man has no right to sacrifice his life in the mad race for money, by neglecting his bodily health. A man owes it to himself and to his wife and children to live a long and helpful life. If a man would live he must keep health.

Health is a matter of a little patch here and there. Look after the little ailments and the big ailments will take care of themselves. They will never come. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery keeps the body in perfect health. It promptly eradicates the little ailments that bring serious illness. If the serious malady has already arrived it promptly cures it by removing the cause. It corrects all disorders of the digestion, invigorates the liver and makes the appetite keen and hearty. It makes the assimilation of food perfect and supplies the blood with the life-giving elements that build new and healthy tissue and firm muscles. It tones and builds up the nerves. It drives impurities and disease-germs from every organ of the body. It cures all diseases due to overwork and worry and faulty nutrition. It is an unfailing remedy for weak lungs, spitting of blood, shortness of breath, severe cough, bronchitis, asthma and kindred affections. It cures 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption.

Mr. Isaac E. Downs, of Spring Valley, Rockland Co., N. Y., writes: "For three years I had suffered from that terrible disease, consumption, and heart-disease. Before taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery I had wasted away to a skeleton; could not sleep nor rest, and many times wished to die to be out of my misery. Step by step, the signs and realities of returning health slowly but surely developed themselves while taking the 'Discovery.' Today I tip the scales at 187, and am well and strong. The 'Golden Medical Discovery' has also cured my daughter of a very bad ulcer located on the thigh."

TWO GREAT BALL GAMES.

Santa Cruz Is Easily Defeated by the Reliance "Giants."

The Beachcombers Are No Match for Oakland's Favorite Tossers.

The Reliance aggregation of baseball tossers of this city again demonstrated their right to be called the superior of any team on the Coast by defeating the heretofore invincible Santa Cruz team both Saturday and Sunday.

Saturday's game was by far the most sensational game of baseball played this season, when the Reliance team wrenched victory from almost certain defeat by scoring a total of six runs in the last inning and winning by a majority of three.

The score stood four to one in favor of Santa Cruz and all hope of scoring the necessary three runs to even up matters or four to win seemed dubious, but they did it and how well the "Giants" batted out a victory is a matter of history.

Sunday's game was never in doubt. The Reliance heavy hitters "caught on" from the first, and try as they would the beach-combers could not stop them. At the end of the ninth inning the Reliance won by the handsome majority of twenty to five.

There were at least 10,000 people at Central Park yesterday to witness the game and those who went with the expectation of enjoying themselves were certainly not disappointed.

In almost every point of the game the Reliance team outplayed its opponents.

Reliance was first at the bat and knocked out three runs. Santa Cruz failed to score. In the second inning, Santa Cruz made one run, a performance which was repeated in the fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth innings.

Reliance on the other hand, made six in the second, five in the third, one in the fourth, three in the sixth, and two in the ninth. Reliance made twenty base hits, while Santa Cruz made but eight.

The battery work of Doyle and Wilson for Reliance was excellent, and they were ably backed up by the field.

Santa Cruz—Williams, ss; Wilson, 1b and c. f.; Devereux, p and 1b; Streib, 2b; E Daubenbis, c. f. and p.; Burge, l. f.; C. Daubenbis, c.; McGrath, r. f.; Nash, 3b.

THE VALUE OF PLEASANTON.

Personal Gossip and Notes of Improvement of All Kinds.

The latest happenings in the several towns of the county during the past week, are recorded below:

(From the Haywards Journal.)

HAYWARDS.

The party of hunters that left July 11th for Trinity County, composed of G. S. Langan, F. Hoflenng, Dr. A. J. Powell, R. Reid and William Bliss returned home Thursday night. They had a fine time and killed twenty-one deer, but did not run across any bear. It took a pack train of about twenty mules to take them over the mountains, requiring a two days' trip.

The extensive drying of apricots in this valley this season gives employment to a large number of people, and was the best move its fruit men could make. There is already a steady demand for dried fruit, particularly apricots, and it is a sign of good prices ahead, when buyers are already in the field bidding for our fruit.

A number of car loads has already been shipped, and everything points to satisfactory prices. There is room for a drying company and it is possible that such an industry may spring up next year.

Mrs. Mary M. Pann, beloved wife of Mr. John Pann, passed away last Sunday morning at 11:15 o'clock after many months of suffering. Deceased enjoyed the esteem and friendship of a wide circle of friends, and her untimely death is a great loss to them. The deceased was a native of Azores Islands and leaves a husband and six children—four sons and two daughters, William, Johnnie, Gussie and Joseph, and Misses Mamie and Lean Pann, besides a mother and brother, Mrs Marinta, and Wm. Marinta, of San Leandro, also other relatives in California and Azores Islands.

The B street matter came up again and President Haar was chosen a committee to wait on the Board of Supervisors in behalf of the town. After interviews with the property owners interested, a plan was devised whereby the county will be asked to take the water that comes to the street from outside the town limits along Slaughter-house street to San Lorenzo Creek, and the town will take care of the water that comes into the street lower down. If this will be agreed to, then the street will be graded and macadamized.

A fire started in Nick Anderson's field in Dublin Canyon Thursday about noon and burned over fifteen acres of stubble and destroyed twenty-five sacks of wheat. The fire started from a pile of ashes left by the threshing outfit. The crew came to the rescue and finally put the fire out.

Reports From the Secretary Show Good Work Has Been Done.

Many Poor and Sick Are Aided Through the Society's Resources.

Mrs Helen Kelly, secretary of the Associated Charities, made the following report for the Society's work in July.

"During the month of July, 1897, there were sixty-three applications for relief. Of this number seventeen were new family cases, fourteen new single cases, twenty-one re-current family cases and eleven re-current single cases.

"Referred to and assisted by the Oakland Benevolent Society twenty-three family cases and eight single cases; referred to the African M. E. Church, two single cases; Fabiola Hospital admitted three persons; the Chabot Home admitted one family and one single case, the Associated Charities of San Francisco, one family; the Supervisors one family case and four single person; secured one free license.

The employment bureau, independent of the woodyard, found work for twenty-six persons. Three women and one man secured permanent places and seventeen men and five women worked nineteen and one-fourth days. Of the twenty-six employment cards sent out those returned show $27.40 had been earned. Thirty meal tickets and three lodging tickets were returned.

At the Woodyard employment has been given to fifty-one men and paid for as follows Fifty-one meal tickets, $5 10; nine bread tickets, 90 cents, thirteen ferry tickets, $1.30, one medicine, 10 cents. Total $7.40.

"The superintendent during the month made sixty calls.

"At a joint meeting of the Associated Charities and Oakland Benevolent Society held in October, 1889, a discussion arose in regard to ways and means to carry on the work of the societies.

"Rev. J. K. McLean's idea was that some Sabbath be set apart as "Charity Day." Every minister in the city be requested to deliver a sermon upon the "Oakland Benevolent Society and the Associated Charities," the collection to go toward the relief work.

"Rev. C. W. Wendte presented a letter from J. S. Howard, president of the Choral Society in which it was suggested that the various charitable societies give a concert, the proceeds to be given to charity. Honorable E W. Playter now deceased, suggested that a canvass for subscriptions should be made. The canvassers should go in pairs and should explain the connection of the two organizations." Mr. Playter emphasized the fact that the Associated Charities would never be a complete success until they had a woodyard and labor bureau. Eight years have elapsed since this eventful meeting. The woodyard is open, and employment has been given to 2,796 men during the past two months.

"The employment or labor bureau has found permanent work for thirty persons, and day's work for one hundred and thirty-five persons. These one hundred and thirty-five persons have earned $485.35. In connection with the labor department we desire some tools, such as rakes, spades, lawn mowers, bucksaws, wheelbarrows, and step ladder—these implements to be temporarily loaned to men willing and anxious to work.

"Fears are entertained unless funds are at once raised, the woodyard will be closed and the laundry is at a standstill for want of sufficient means.

"Cannot the plan suggested by Mr. Playter in 1889 be carried out? Will not some one consent to canvass for subscriptions or memberships, so that our unemployed can be provided for. Let the woodyard be continued, open the laundry and start the Pingree system."

"Respectfully submitted,
HELEN S. KELLY,
Superintendent and Secretary.

SUNDAY'S SERMONS

"Divine Meaning of the Rush to the Clondyke Gold Fields."

REV. PHILIP GRAIF'S THEME.

He Says a Desire for Nuggets Is as Lofty as Passion for Truth.

DILLE IN OAKLAND.

The Methodist Divine Speaks at the Thirty-Fourth Street Church.

At the Twenty-first Street Baptist Church last evening, the pastor, Rev. Philip Graif preached on the theme, "The Divine Meaning of the Rush to the Clondyke Gold Fields." He said among other things:

"Just as every subject has, besides its baser, seamy side, aspects of larger significance and beauty, where 'an ampler ether, a diviner air' plays round the heights, so this gold craze presents us with some of the higher meanings of life and action.

"First this rush to the Clondyke gold fields obviously explains many unconscious process of colonizing and empire-building—how, by lure of the precious metal, of rich, well-watered lands, races have migrated and armies marched, and thus, by the commingling of various Caucasian bloods, a new country has been cultivated and a better type of man evolved. Though life under the midnight sun as a rule be too austere for the dwellers in the temperate zone, the gold fever will likely, in course of time, bring to bear upon Alaskan lands all the potent stimuli and culture of our latter-day civilization. When God wishes to make the Arctic ice to break into blossom he implants in the hears of thousands a wild, adventurous instinct that enjoys the munching of frozen foods and takes kindly to a cool bath in the swirl and foam of the White Horse rapids.

"Again, these knights-errant of gold flocking together from all quarters, will come into sympathetic touch, while sectional prejudices will melt away and exclusion or provincial pride will yield to the sweet and magical influence of a universal brotherhood. When the angel chant of Bethlem, even in the crude shape of a gold-digging friendship, is somewhat incarnated, life rises divinely above the level of a point-blank sordidness.

"Furthermore, the Clondyke rush may prove a benediction in turning the tenderfoot argonaut, dainty of limb and lily-white of finger, into a hardy, virile, well-knit specimen of manhood. Talk as we please of the peerless beauty of balmy skies; it is not the easy armchair or the summer hammock, but the sharp pinch of hunger and cold that develop grit and glory. Rather than the orange-blossom the snow-flake stands forth, as the fit symbol of thought and progress, of empire and civilization.

"The Clondyke gold-fields, in so far as they teach and evoke fore-sight and thrift, industry and self denial, sagacity and skill, are good schools of discipline and manhood. In the last analysis, better than the plums of gold picked off bonanza boughs, are the riches of self-reliance, the invincible determination and courage, the fertility of resources, the jaunty optimism of cheer and hope that come from facing dark and perilous hours. All progress and culture are the fruit of suffering. Alaskan gold glitters, in a deeper sense, not so much from the polish of frost as from the fact that it is washed and enriched by the tears and blood of human suffering and sacrifice.

"To desire gold dust and nuggets is just as natural and lofty as the scholars' quest and passion for truth, the artist's search for beauty, the patriot's love of country or the saint's pursuit of holiness. The work of a gold-mine may be made as sacramentally pure and noble as to lift up holy hands in the sanctuary or give help to a lone and forlorn Lazarus. A genius for accumulation is as proper as a taste for art or a strong, clear bent for oratory or statesmanship. The universe is a divine workshop, and man can commune with the unwearied Creator as well through pick-axe and shovel as through prayer-books and temples of worship. Every honest toiler, in so far as he lives for high things, marches side by side with the immortal thinkers and seers.

"The Clondyke rush also reveals a fresh and emphasizes the truth that man in spite of his materialistic age, is, in the essence of his being, an idealist. He lives not alone by matter-of-fact realities, but in great part by expectations and hopes. Just as Abraham journeyed toward an invisible city, ever haunted by this bright enchanting vision of faith, so the Clondyke gold-hunter, yea all of us, live under the spur and inspiration of some fair, but unrealized dream. Better be a poor, foiled, quenchless chaser of an elusive gleam of truth and beauty than a gross, earth-grubbling creature that is merely satisfied with present horizons.

"The Clondyke gold fields may bring many a tough sinner to his senses. Men are often spiritualized by hard necessities. In times of extreme danger, in storm or famine, stubborn knees learn to meekly bow and infidel lips to breathe a penitential prayer.

"Clondyke claims may sparkle with riches beyond the treasures of the Orient, yet without morals or virtue. Wealth is a Pandora's box of countless ills. If gold nuggets are allowed to eclipse God and duty, they are lures and spells of incalculable harm. A gold mine may have its heroisms as well as the martyr-fagot or the battle field, but its trend is not apt to be Godward. Simply to live to feast the eye with gew-gaws, or tickle the palate with rich dainties, or array the skin in purple and fine linen is to make coffers of coin a blight instead of a blessing. Better crusts and poverty than gay, gilded self-seeking. Better stagger into an Arctic grave than be a limp, idle, useless member of society.

"No doubt it is a glorious thing to bring home in oil can and canvas sack, in glass jar and buck-skin pouch, gold dust and nuggets of fabulous value, but without grace or piety, wisdom or love the richest Clondyke fortunes are but as glittering snare and a mocking delusion. However splendidly El Dorado shafts and river beds may pan out in that belt of twilight and thick-ribbed ice, of zero weather and famine haunt, one thing is certain—that millions of dollars, unsanctified by nobility of soul, are after all not the most enviable possessions. In short, Clondyke wealth or any other that is used as an end for mere self-gratification and personal luxury instead of as an unselfish instrument for the good of others, in so far for it has lost its divine significance and value."

DR. DILLE'S SERMON.

He Holds That True Happiness Is Found Only in the Cross.

Dr. E. R. Dille of San Francisco preached yesterday morning at the Thirty-fourth Street Methodist Church, which was crowded to the doors.

In brief, Dr. Dille said:

"The one great truth of religion and human relation is life through death, and the cross is the emblem of that truth. Many people follow pleasure, many long for fame, many pursue wealth, but true happiness is to be found only in life for life, in sacrifice, in the cross. In the heart of the Sierra mountains is to be found a large, rich vein of gold called the Mother lode. But the mother lode of sacrifice is the richest vein in the universe.

"We find it true in the physical world that life comes of death. Before we could have soil for the wheat, or stone for the sculpture, or the great deposits of coal for human consumption we had death—vicarious sacrifice. And this grand country of ours—what would it have been had not the blood of martyrs been shed that we might today enjoy the pursuit of happiness and tranquility. Moreover, the principal of life runs through our every domestic relation. Go down on the business streets of Oakland and San Francisco tomorrow afternoon and see the thousands of men plainly overworked and slowly dying. They are not avaricious. They could live on a few hundred dollars a year. Why are they then killing themselves. It is because there are invisible strings of love running to the home; because wife and children must be given comforts and education. It is the old story of life by substitution. Again how many a wife navigates a family through the ills and pains that youth is heir to, only to find herself worn out and ready for the grave. What abiding love of self-sacrifice our homes often tell. Christ could not have saved the world if he had saved himself. Nor can we save others if we save ourselves. 'He saved others, himself he could not save.' That is the lesson which comes to us today.

Temporary Pastor Will Be Chosen to Preside for Six Months.

The union of the two Christian Churches was ratified yesterday morning. At each church a vote was taken and it was unanimous.

Under the terms of union both Rev. Edwards Davis, pastor of Central Church, and Glen McWilliams of the First Church, resign and a temporary pastor is to be chosen for the first six months of the existence of the new body. At the end of that time a permanent pastor will be selected. Necessarily, both ministers will be open to a call, and both will have their supporters.

In discussing the union, Chief of Police Lloyd, one of the leaders of the First Church and a worker for consolidation, said: "The question of the pastorate has been purposely left out of consolidation, and under agreement both pastors resign. A temporary minister to act for six months will be chosen, and then when consolidation is complete, we will choose a permanent pastor. It may be either of the two men who are now resigning and it may be neither of them. Their resignations have no strings attached and it is a straightforward proposition. We are all working earnestly for the success of the church in Oakland, and we will do our best to avoid friction."

WAS TIRED OF LIFE.

The Remains of John N. Hopkins Found in Golden Gate Park.

The mystery regarding the disappearance of John R. Hopkins has been cleared up, because the dead body which was found in Golden Gate Park Friday last has been identified as that of the missing man. Hopkins resided with his step-daughter, Mrs. Helena Hopkins, 1310 Webster avenue, Alameda, who works in Logan's studio in this city. Hopkins was abandoned by his wife two years ago, and it is believed that the desertion was responsible for his suicide.

MR. SNOW EXPLAINS.

The Sunday School Orchestra Should Be Treated Tenderly.

W. FINE RETURNS THE LETTER.

He Wants It to Be Couched in Language That Is More Agreeable.

MADAME TREBELLI'S BOTTLES.

One of the Incidents Which Brought About the Dis-Union.

There are all kinds of stories being told of the reason for the severing of the connection between the Sunday school orchestra and the First Congregational Church. One of the leading objections to the orchestra by the trustees is that the orchestra has lost its spiritual element and accepts all kinds of people so long as they can play a musical instrument.

It is reported that at the Trebelli concert a few months ago, her managers smoked in the church and the prima donna actually drank beer before going on the stage. This is said to be undesirable at a concert given by a Sunday school orchestra.

William A. Fine, manager of the orchestra, has returned the letter of dismissal to the trustees with a request that it be couched in more dignified language.

"I was not present at the meeting at which the orchestra was discussed," said President R. W. Snow of the board of trustee of the First Congregational Church tonight, "so the letter was not signed by me at that time. It was presented to me the next day with the signature of the secretary of the meeting. As it was not couched in the terms I thought ought to be used to a body of young people that had held such harmonious relations with us for so long, I refused to sign it. I thought the secretary's name was sufficient.

"The communication had three divisions in it, and shorn of all details, they were these: First—That the orchestra drop the name of the First Congregational Sunday school. Second—That their playing in the Sunday school be dispensed with. Third—That as they were no longer the Sunday school orchestra under arangements, they should not expect the privileges they had enjoyed in the past. Now, if this had been conveyed to them in the proper spirit, there would never have been a word of trouble, for both Mr. Fine and Mr. McCoy have been planning for this very thing themselves, as it was the wish of the orchestra.

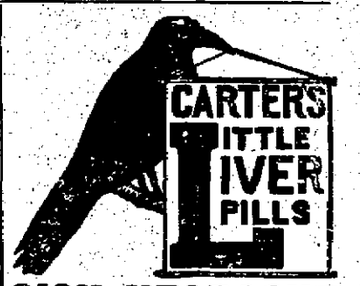

"But some one, whether it was the secretary of the meeting or not I do not know, couched it in such language that the boys did not know whether they had been thrown out or what had happened to them. They naturally came to me to find out. I showed them the three points of the letter, and, telling them to forget the rest of the letter, asked them if they were satisfied with these. They replied in the affirmative, and said they had contemplated such a move at their first rehearsal, a week from Tuesday night. Then they accepted it in a Christian spirit, and made a manly response to the same.

"As to the property that belongs to the orchestra. The only equity we possess is in the fact that we encouraged them and gave them the use of the house and lights to raise the money for their purchase. No individual can come in and take any of it away, but the orchestra may do what they please with it.

"It is evident that some one is jealous of the ownership of the music and instruments. I don't believe that there would ever have been a word about this affair if it was not owing to a jealous disposition being shown by some one. That always leads to trouble.

"Little things, one after another, have been stored up by the deacons for twelve long years, and now they have acted. They are not to blame and everything will settle down as of old. While I am in charge of the church, at least until I have different instructions from the board of trustees, the orchestra will meet for rehearsals and give their concerts in the church as of old, and I told the boys so."

The orchestra will hold a business meeting in a few days, and will choose a new name and try to live down the many unpleasantnesses connected with the Sunday school orchestra.

IT WAS LAUGHABLE to see many of our would-be competitors try to waylay the people headed for our GREAT BONA-FIDE SLAUGHTER SALE. Some threw out odds and ends of shoddy and when verdant victims asked to be fitted with some of their Baits they were politely informed that they were "yuste audt of der size." But their cheaply made and ill-fitting Plunder—which did not contain enough wool to keep an ordinary sheep warm over night—had no effect in stopping the flood-tide of trade which poured into our low-priced gates until nearly midnight.
